

Historian | George Edwards, 71 | George was a championship wrestler while at Boys Town in a period when wrestling was a dominant sport. After graduation, George embarked on a career with United Airlines as an aircraft mechanic and rose to supervision of the entire Pacific Region for emergency and off-station maintenance. After living in California for many years George relocated to Austin, Texas where he does woodworking projects for his home while he pursues his passion of scuba diving in the Caribbean. As Historian, George is responsible for handling questions relating to the Association history and contributes his expertise during board meetings. Email
