

At-Large | Steve Wolf, '80 | Steve comes to the board with previous experience on the board as a member and president. He has been instrumental over the past many years as president of the Father Flanagan League Society of Devotion supporting and working for the eventual canonization of our beloved founder, Father Edward J. Flanagan. Steve brings a wealth of practical experience in board matters, a strong and active commitment to the mission of the BTNAA and a willingness to work hard on behalf of the Association. He is a retired Sergeant Major in the U.S. Army Reserves and the founder and owner of several private businesses. Steve was recognized at the 2025 reunion with the presentation of the Father Flanagan Outstanding Alumnus Award for his lifelong contribution to helping others. Steve and his wife Keery make their home in Ponce Inlet, Florida. Steve's term expires in 2027.
