FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 22, 2022

Matthew Stein Named Boys & Girls Club of Troy Youth of the Year

TROY, MI - Troy Athens High School senior Matthew Stein was selected as the 2022 Boys & Girls Club of Troy (BGCT) Youth of the Year. This is his first time winning this award. Matthew will now compete against members of other Boys & Girls Clubs in the state for the Michigan Youth of the Year title and a $5,000 college scholarship courtesy of program sponsors which include Toyota and Mondelez International.

As the 2022 Youth of the Year honoree for the Boys & Girls Club of Troy, the 18-year old is among hundreds of teens across the country being recognized by Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA) for sound character, leadership skills and willingness to give back to the community.

BGCA's premier youth recognition program, Youth of the Year is the highest honor a Boys & Girls Club member can receive. The program encourages Club members to reach their full potential by achieving academic success, leading healthy lifestyles and contributing to their communities.

"Over Matthew's time at the Boys & Girls Club of Troy, he has been a shining example of hard work, discipline, and dedication to BGCT for all of our members. From being a leader among our Leaders In Training and as a Junior Staff, Matthew has become an outstanding young leader. We have witnessed him grow over his 8 years at the Club and has become a positive role model for all of our youth here. I'm amazed by not only by how far Matthew has come both academically and personally, but that he continues to give back to the club that has given him so much," said Boys & Girls Club of Troy CEO Jeff Evans. "His talent, personality and work ethic make him a well-deserved representative of the Boys & Girls Club of Troy and the local community."

"It is an honor to represent the Boys & Girls Club of Troy as the 2022 Youth of the Year," said Matthew. "I thank the Boys & Girls Club of Troy for helping to grow me into the person that I am today. Thank you for providing me with a platform to share my story, to grow my voice, and to show pride and respect for my Club. I will also make sure that everyone knows how amazing it is to be a part of a great environment, the Boys & Girls Club of Troy."

Matthew has been a member of the Boys & Girls Club for eight years. He has volunteered in a number of roles throughout the Club, most notably in leadership roles through the Leaders In Training and Junior Staff programs. Additionally, Matthew recently earned his Eagle Scout rank by completing a service project at BGCT where he led a team to construct a climbing wall and sand box for younger members at BGCT. Matthew says that his favorite memory at the Club was getting to play in a baseball game with members and staff against players from the USPBL and Detroit Tigers. He plans to follow his interests in either Architecture or Computer Engineering at only of the colleges on his short list.

Each year, thousands of Club teens participate in local, state and regional Youth of the Year events. Six teens, including five regional winners and a national military youth winner, advance to Washington, D.C., for the National Youth of the Year Gala & Celebration Dinner, where one outstanding young person is named Boys & Girls Clubs of America's national teen spokesperson. The National Youth of the Year is a role model, leader and advocate for the nearly four million youth served by Boys & Girls Clubs each year, and all of America's young people.

ABOUT THE BOYS & GIRLS CLUB OF TROY

The Boys & Girls Club of Troy, located at 3670 John R Road, is a non-profit youth development organization that provides educational and recreational activities, in addition to mentoring programs, to more than 1,200 children, aged six to 18, in the tri-county area of metropolitan Detroit. For nearly four decades, the Club's positive environment has enabled members to become responsible, self-reliant, and caring adults. Visit www.bgctroy.org for more information.
