Women's Intergenerational Group (WIG)

WIG meets on the third Sunday of each month following morning worship. We finish around 1:30 pm.

Join us this Sunday for a powerful and moving presentation with Amena Khavari, a young Afghan woman who fled Afghanistan when it fell to the Taliban and has since rebuilt her life here in Ottawa. Drawing from her own lived experience, Amena now works full-time as OMRA's Client Services Manager, supporting Afghan and other newcomer women as they navigate settlement challenges such as education, employment, financial literacy, and mental and physical health. Amena will share her personal journey and the realities facing Afghan women today, followed by stories from OMRA that highlight how our organization is helping newcomers move from crisis to stability and independence.

Maria Rigby is the President of OMRA and will speak to us about some of the wonderful clients OMRA helps through the rent subsidy program that Glebe St. James supports through donations and through participation in the grocery card program. We will have a chance to get to know our guests over lunch before their presentation.

Labyrinth: Third Sunday of each month, 3 - 5 pm.
Come find your quiet centre. Contact: Judy Wolanski

Congregational Conversation – Sunday, February 1st

We are holding another Congregational Conversation on Sunday February 1st, immediately following our worship service and coffee time. As a follow-up to our November conversation, we will be starting to talk about the building and its importance to our spiritual life. Before the meeting starts, we'll gather for our usual coffee hour in Fraser Hall. You may also wish to bring a brown bag lunch or something to share to supplement the usual coffee hour offerings before the meeting starts. I hope to see you there.

The heat is back.....

It appears our heating problems are gone for now.
Thank you for your patience.

An Opportunity to contribute to Affordable Housing: You may be aware that Dream Unlimited and its partner Multifaith Housing Initiative (MHI) are building a multi-residential rental project at 665 Albert Street in Ottawa’s LeBreton Flats. (<https://www.connectcre.ca/stories/dream-mhi-break-ground-on-ottawa-multi-res-project/>). Known as Odenak, the project is named after the Algonquin Anishinàbe word for “community.” The development has been designed by Perkins&Will, KPMB, and Indigenous architecture firm Two Row Architects to prioritize sustainability, inclusivity, and affordability. The United Church supports the project nationally through the United Church Foundation and locally through congregational fundraising. Our Regional Council has set a goal of $150K. Watch for the next fundraising event or donate directly. (<https://www.multifaithhousing.ca/united-we-dream.html>).
