Outreach

The beginning – 2021

Incorporation of OMRA Shelter Corp – providing affordable housing to newcomer family sponsored by the Ottawa Mennonite Church and housed in a townhome owned by sister organization, OMRA Shelter Alternatives.

Their 25th Anniversary Newsletter is included with this e-update as an attachment.

The Annual OMRA Potluck Picnic is scheduled for August 15th, Brantwood Park

Multifaith Housing Initiative – Tulipathon campaign extended.

A home is more than a place to sleep. It is safety. Stability. Community.

Multifaith has approx $ 20,000 left to raise to hit their target of $ 125,000.

Every day, Multifaith Housing Initiative works to provide affordable housing and create welcoming communities where tenants can thrive.

Together, we can help ensure more individuals and families continue to be part of a caring housing community.

For Church Council Members...

The United Church of Canada invites you to deepen your engagement with anti-racism, cultural diversity, and faithful intercultural ministry through our upcoming online course:

Becoming an Intercultural Church: Encountering God Across Cultures

- Are you wondering how to begin exploring intercultural ministries in your local context?
- Are you curious how newer neighbours of diverse identities might experience belonging in your community of faith?
- Are you interested in embracing cultural and racial diversity in your church?
- Are you looking for practical, faithful ways to build confidence in engaging across differences in your congregation?

This six-week interactive online course offers a meaningful space for ministry personnel, lay leaders, and congregational teams to explore these questions—and more—together. For more information click here.
