Brandon & Jessica Jackson

We are thrilled to announce our latest community project designed to create a lasting impact for individuals, families, organizations, and businesses throughout the Lowell District in Downtown Fresno. Our vision is to establish a modern multi-use community facility designed to serve as a gathering place for meetings, workshops, leadership development programs, special events, youth activities, professional trainings, and community collaborations. This space will provide a welcoming environment where people can connect, learn, grow, and work together to strengthen our community for generations to come.

The need for accessible, affordable, and flexible community space continues to grow. Local nonprofits, youth programs, small businesses, educators, churches, and civic organizations often struggle to find suitable venues for trainings, meetings, and events. This facility will help meet that need by offering a centralized hub where ideas can be developed, partnerships can flourish, and valuable resources can be shared. Beyond the building itself, this project represents an investment in people, leadership, education, and community engagement.

To bring this vision to life, we are inviting individuals, businesses, foundations, and community leaders to join us as partners. Through our sponsorship opportunities and giving levels, supporters can play a direct role in helping establish this important resource. Contributions may support facility improvements, technology upgrades, furnishings, educational programming, equipment, and operational needs. Sponsorship recognition opportunities, naming opportunities, volunteer engagement, in-kind donations, and strategic partnerships are available for those who wish to become part of the project's legacy.
