Peters Funeral Home

Policy Statement on Cremations

At Peters Funeral Home, Funeral Directors are dedicated to providing cremation services with the greatest dignity and respect. Cremation is a final and irreversible act, and we feel it is our responsibility to family members to ascertain with absolute certainty the identity of a deceased family member prior to the actual cremation. In exercising our responsibility to our client families, it is our policy that an immediate family member who is familiar with the decedent make a positive identification of the decedent prior to cremation. For your convenience a ten-minute period will be reserved for you at a specific date and time at our chapel for the identification process. The identification process is not intended to be a traumatic experience for you or your family, but rather a necessary procedure to provide peace of mind for you and our staff. We assure you that the decedent will be properly clothed in a gown or appropriate manner and a staff member will be present for assistance. We hope this process will not inconvenience you and that you will agree to the request is in the best interest of you and your family.
