Our Mission

To touch the hearts of those we serve by providing the very best value in life honoring experiences.

Our Purpose

To touch hearts as we honor life.

Our Values

These four values are the core of what we believe as a business. They define how we daily care for our client families, our community, and our team members.

Honesty is what we expect in our team members. It is our way of communicating and conducting business with all the highest in ethical standards at all times.

Excellence describes the service we strive to provide from the moment of first contact. It is the goal we work towards and what we hold ourselves accountable to.

Compassion is how we serve others in a genuine and heartfelt way. It is how we care for those who grieve, their deceased loved one, as well as our fellow team members. We believe in serving our client families and those we work with as if... “They are members of our own family.”

Respect is how we authentically and professionally serve at all times. It is our way of “being” each day with each other as we care for our clients, the deceased, and the public as we conduct ourselves with the utmost in dignity and professionalism.

Grief Support Services

Since 1986, we have continued to offer comprehensive Grief Resources, Education programs and Grief Support Groups. Our Grief Resource Lending Libraries are available for your education about the grief process. Various programs including Veterans Memorial Service, Peace Officers Memorial Service, Holiday Remembrance Candlelight Service, and more are provided for our community.

All families served by Baue are offered a complimentary grief counseling session through our partners.

Eco-Friendly Service Packages

Green Burial Council

Baue Funeral Homes has been approved by the Green Burial Council to provide eco-friendly burial options. This certification is granted to providers who comply with the established standards of the Green Burial Council, which aims to establish sustainable practices in the funeral industry and conserve and steward land through burial. St. Charles Memorial Gardens can provide the option of a hybrid green burial.

Green Burial Graveside Services $4720

Although formaldehyde based embalming is prohibited there are embalming options available. We offer a selection of caskets approved by the Green Burial Council. Merchandise and cash advance items not included.

Flameless Cremation $3295

This package includes discounted pricing.

Includes the basic services of funeral director and staff; cleansing, sanitizing, and dressing unembalmed remains for identification and refrigeration. All transportation and alkaline hydrolysis fees included in this package. Flameless cremation, scientifically known as alkaline hydrolysis, is a natural, gentle, and eco-friendly alternative. The process uses water instead of flame, expending 85% less energy than traditional cremation. By using a combination of gentle water flow, ordinary salts, and gravity. Flameless cremation mirrors the same natural break down of a body if it were to be laid to rest directly in the soil during a green burial, only accelerated in a period of 12-14 hours instead of several years.

Formaldehyde-Free Embalming $1250

Our eco-friendly embalming solution is a proprietary blend that does not contain formaldehyde or methanol, making it a natural choice for those who prioritize the environment. It offers limited preservation while allowing families to meet green burial requirements and have traditional open casket services.

Life Honoring Tributes

Patrick Rankin
Certified Celebrant

Service Celebrant

Our service celebrant performs ceremonies for families who prefer a highly personalized service that can be faith based or not. Our celebrant will meet with your family to create a unique and meaningful service that will truly honor the life of your loved one. The celebrant has a unique understanding of the many ways available to honor a life lived, and can recommend music, scripture, poetry, and assist with a variety of unique life tribute services.

Celebrant Services for Chapel, Gathering, or Memorial Service on or off premise $450
Celebrant Services For Graveside Only $325

Memorialist from $500

This contemporary approach differs from traditional memorial or funeral services. A celebration of life places emphasis on how someone lived and their distinctive personality traits and combines it with the memories of mourners. It is often the preferred option for families looking to create a personalized ceremony of substance and meaning without, necessarily, focusing on religious beliefs. Memories are moments that tell our stories.

Musical Accompaniments from $125

We believe that music is a very important part of honoring your loved one’s life. We have assembled a wide variety of musical groups such as jazz, Irish, mariachi and rock. Your director will also assist you in selecting quality musicians including a harpist, guitarist, violinist, flutist, bagpiper, pianist, organist and bugler. We are able to arrange for any request for your own musical tribute during visitation, gathering, ceremony and graveside services.

Webcasting from $350

Share stories in a live chat, upload pictures, and sign the guestbook with messages of memories, even from a distance with webcasting of services. Webcasting is available for the funeral ceremony, memorial service, celebration of life or cemetery service. This unique live tribute allows family & friends from both near and far to virtually attend through a password-protected website.

Funeral Service On or Off-Site $350 • Additional Event/Location $200

Complimentary Website Memorial Tribute

Your website obituary is written and placed online, where family and friends may leave memories and condolences. An eternal tribute offers the ability to include music, video, unlimited photos, links to other websites, and other enhanced options to connect with family and friends.

Dove Release from $450

Up to four doves are released as part of a ceremony or at the conclusion of an outside gathering or graveside service, weather permitting.

Butterfly Release from $500

Up to 60 monarch butterflies are released at once or individually, weather permitting.

Video Tribute $150

Photographs are set to music and produced on a (non-copyrighted) DVD or flash drive for viewing during the visitation, funeral ceremony or memorial gathering. (Additional are available for $15 each).

Memorial Register Book Packages from $150

Most packages include the following: register book, 100 memorial folders or prayer cards, 50 acknowledgment cards, bookmarks (not included in the basic memorial record register book package). Custom Memorial Printing from $75 Memorial folders, tri-fold folders, service programs, prayer cards.
