Batesville's Pricing Policy

Batesville makes independent decisions about the wholesale prices we charge for our products in a delivery area ("List Price"). Likewise, you make independent decisions about the retail prices you charge for your products and services. As a service to you, we can make suggestions about the prices you charge families for Batesville products. However, our input is a suggestion only and you are solely responsible for making all pricing decisions for products offered to your customers.

Unless stated or agreed upon otherwise, the price shown for any product on a Batesville price list is the List Price. Net Price means the List Price, less applicable discounts (before rebate programs, if any), plus any applicable surcharges, and pursuant to applicable contract terms. In addition to the Net Price, products purchased may be subject to additional service and processing fees such as, credit card processing fees (where permitted by law), expedited delivery fees, customization fees, and sales and similar taxes. Net prices shown for urns are for non-personalized urns only. In Batesville's sole discretion, certain product lines (ex. Generations) may only be offered at Net Price and no discounts/rebates are applicable to purchases, but such purchase will count towards rebate tiers in applicable contracts. Prices, surcharges and fees are subject to change without notice.
