Fr. Matthew Baum - Celebrant
Deacon Rick Messina

Happy Thanksgiving to all of our Proclaim Viewers. This past month was especially touching for me as a pastor here. Since All Soul's Day fell on a Sunday this year, it was wonderful to be able to take time to pray for all of our departed loved ones as a part of our TV Mass. It was also very nice this month to welcome Fr. Anthony Francis Spilka to speak about our veterans. Finally, it was good to participate in our "Called by Name" Sunday as we look as parishioners to identify young men in our parishes and communities who would benefit from discerning a call to priesthood and religious life. It is our hope that you will help us to identify potential young men and continue to pray for them.

As we move into December and the Advent season, we make our preparations for Christ to come into the world, both two millennia ago and again at the end of time. Advent is a wonderful time of year when we set up our advent wreath, put our shoes out for St. Nicholas, and begin to engage in all those traditions that help to get us in the Christmas spirit. It brings me great joy to share that we will yet again celebrate our Christmas Eve TV Mass live at 4PM on Christmas Eve. Once again we welcome back Bishop Mark Bartchak as our celebrant. At the same time, for those who have lost family and find themselves alone or homebound, the holidays can be a difficult time. Please keep in your prayers all those who are not able to join their families this Christmas for one reason or another.

May you have a Happy Thanksgiving, a Blessed Advent, and a very Merry Christmas.

Please know that you are all always in our prayers,

Fr. Matt
