Fr. Matthew Baum - Celebrant
Fr. Canice McMullen, OSB
Deacon Rick Messina

I want to begin this month with a very special thank you to all of our Proclaim TV Mass Volunteers! Over the last few years, we have welcomed quite a number of new faces to our team and welcomed back quite a number of former volunteers who have returned. Every week, our volunteers give of their time and effort so that the mass can be shared with all of our viewers.

The week leading up to January 25th, we heard the snow was coming, we all read the Bishop's dispensation from Sunday mass due to the storm, and his encourage of people to watch the TV Mass. We put out our message to our volunteers and we have quite a number who told us, "No matter the snow, we'll be there to make sure we can provide for our viewers." True to their word, even with feet of snow on the ground, our faithful volunteers made it in, because they all know and support what this mass means to so many. Please join me in my thanks and prayers for all our dedicated volunteers.

Due to the storm, we did have to postpone our Catholic Schools week mass, so this month we will welcome our Bishop back for the first and second weekend of February as we celebrate first Catholic Schools and then Consecrated Life.

On the 15th, we'll have one more special guest before Lent begins as we welcome back our former rector Fr. Jim Crookston. After many years, a group is looking to return on a mission trip to our twin parish in Mandeville, Jamaica. Fr. Crookston will be sharing with us some stories from our twin parish as well as some of their plans for the future.

I also want to take a moment to thank you, our viewers and supporters. Without your support, none of this ministry would be possible. Thank you, please continue to keep us all in your prayers as you are in ours.

God Bless,

Fr. Matt Baum
