Fr. Canice McMullen, OSB
Deacon Rick Messina

Happy New Year
Prayers
AND BLESSINGS
FOR YOUR FAMILY

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of our Proclaim TV Mass Viewers! It was wonderful to welcome Bishop Mark back to join us for our annual Christmas Mass, and again for the following Sunday as we celebrated the close of the Jubilee Year of Hope! It is always a wonderful time of year to remember the real reason for the season, bringing mass to so many homes this Christmas. I would like to especially thank WATM for yet again finding space to air our mass live on Christmas Eve.

It has been quite a year here at the Proclaim TV Ministries. We have now updated all of our cameras to High Definition and we've heard from so many viewers what a difference it has made. We've also welcomed a number of new volunteers to the crew. In November, we worked with the diocese to set up a new YouTube Channel, and I'm happy to share that it's been going well. I've visited a number of our homebound parishioners who watch us on YouTube, as well as live on ABC23, and many others who like to check out the homilies after attending their own church. If you haven't added us yet, just search for Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown on YouTube.

We've also had some clergy changes in this last year. It was wonderful to have Father Simon with us most Sundays, until November, when he was asked by Bishop Mark to move up the hill to our neighbors at St. Benedict. Not long after his departure though, we heard some wonderful news, a new priest would be joining us. In December, we welcomed Fr. Canice McMullen, OSB to our Proclaim TV Mass family. Fr. Canice brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to our parish, and we are grateful to have him join us.

In the next few weeks, we will celebrate the Epiphany of our Lord, Catholic Schools week, and then the first week of February, we will celebrate the week of Consecrated life. Please know how much we appreciate all of our Minute-A-Month contributors, the good work we are doing is only possible through your generous support. Please continue to keep us in your prayers.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, Fr. Matt
