Fr. Canice McMullen, OSB

Deacon Rick Messina

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY!

Loving Creator, on this Fourth of July, we give thanks for the beauty and bounty of our land, a precious gift from You. Help us to cherish and protect this Earth, our common home.

Grant us the wisdom to be good stewards of Your creation, caring for the air, water, and soil that sustain life. Inspire us to work for justice and peace, ensuring that all may share in the fruits of the Earth.

Bless our efforts to live sustainably and harmoniously with nature, reflecting Your love and glory in all we do.

Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Ordinary Time has always been my favorite season of the liturgical year. It's a time when we really hear Jesus call his disciples, share the good news, and teach us who we are called to be. It's this time of year that we hear the parables, the sermon on the mount, the miracles and healings, and all the things that showed the people in biblical times that He really was who He said He was.

In the month of July at St. John Gualbert, it's also a time for us to celebrate our special feast days and devotions. Coming up this month, we will be celebrating our patronal feast, as we share the story of St. John Gualbert himself, the great tragedy of his brother's murder, his great moment of conversion on Good Friday, and his call to become a Benedictine Monk. Then, later this month, we will celebrate our annual St. Anne Devotions. After speaking to some of the other priests, we believe our St. Anne Devotion is the oldest continuous running devotion in our diocese. For 103 years, we have celebrated St. Anne. This year, our Proclaim viewers will get to see the brand new, life-sized 3d printed statue of St. Anne, created with the help of Artificial Intelligence. The statue will be in the church the weekend of July 26th . Please tune in to see it!

I'd also like to share some of the fruits of the evangelization efforts our TV Ministry has brought. In the last month or so, we have had quite a number of inquiries from those wishing to become Catholic. Many of them had been reading online about the Catholic faith, and after seeing our TV Mass broadcast, contacted us about becoming Catholic. In all, we currently have over 20 people inquiring about the faith. Even if not all of them continue, it's incredible to see the fruit from our efforts.

As always, we thank you and all of our Minute-A-Month supporters. It is only thanks to your continued support that we are able to continue this incredible ministry that serves our region.

God bless you,
Fr. Matt
