MEMORIAL DAY

"Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

— St. John 15:13

As we come to the close of the Easter Season and just finished celebrating the great feast of Pentecost, we begin the season of Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time has always been my favorite season. It's wonderful to celebrate the special moments of our faith, Christmas, Easter, the great feast days, and special occasions. Yet, just as we can't just live on dessert, it's good to celebrate the ordinary moments of our lives, and the Ordinary Time of our faith.

I'm reminded of a quote from Laurel Thatcher Ulrich, an American Historian, who once said "well behaved women rarely make history." She was trying to research the lives of colonial women and realized that very little was recorded about the ordinary moments of their lives, yet what they did was incredibly important to keep society running.

In our faith, Ordinary Time is when we celebrate the regular things that Jesus did from week to week, the regular tasks we're called to do with our lives. We begin this season with the Feasts of Ordinary Time, parts of the faith that aren't really attached to specific days, but recall who it is that we believe in. We celebrate Trinity Sunday, the reality that we have a God who exists in relationship with Himself and so wants a real relationship with us. Corpus Christi, the Feast of the Body and Blood, where we celebrate the Eucharist as Jesus becomes truly present on the altar, and the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, recognizing the love that our Lord has for each of us. Those are realities that we might celebrate on a specific day, but exist every moment of our lives, and they're the realities that change the world.

This month as a Diocese, we celebrate our 125th anniversary. As a part of that anniversary, our Diocesan Proclaim! Magazine did a feature article on our TV Ministry. We're very thankful to Tony DeGol and everyone who helped make that feature happen, as we did our best to thank our volunteers who are here week in and week out making the TV Mass happen. We also thank you, our regular minute-a-month contributors. It is because of all of you that the incredible TV Ministry we have been entrusted with continues. Not because of any one of us, but because together, we each do our part in our own way, to continue to bring Mass to the Masses. Thank you for your support and your prayers.

God Bless you now and always, Fr. Matt Baum
