Whenever something would go wrong, I always hear Father Chuck's words, "Well, that's live television." We had a few ups and downs this month. A few weeks ago, as I was talking to my parents, they told me, "We were watching your mass this week and I was wondering if you were confused, because you started the same homily as the week before." As many of you know, there were some technical issues with our broadcast a few weeks ago and we missed the first few minutes of our Blue and White Mass. Thankfully everything was resolved by the end of the mass, and although we can't always control everything, we are doing our best to follow up with what happened to ensure it doesn't happen again. We certainly thank you for your patience. We do, however, want to sincerely thank all of the first responders and medical personnel who joined us, as well as, Bishop Jeenanandam Amalanathan, who joined us the week before for our Missionary Co-op weekend.

Coming up this month, October is Respect Life Month. About a year ago, a number of interested Catholics started a diocesan Respect Life committee with the goal of sharing the Church's teaching on life issues. We are excited at our Proclaim TV Mass to welcome Bishop Mark to join us October 26th for a special Pro-Life Mass. We thank Bishop Mark for his support of life issues.

Our TV Ministry team has been working hard and we have two new exciting things to share. First, thanks to our amazing Minute-a-Month sponsors, we were finally able to afford the fourth and final new manned HD Camera. It arrived this week and will be installed in the very near future. Secondly, thanks to some cooperation with our Diocesan Communications Office, our diocese has just launched a new YouTube channel. Our broadcast mass isn't going away and will always be the primary way to view the TV Mass. Coming very soon, we will be live-streaming the mass via YouTube. Please watch out for more information as we make this exciting new step.

Finally, this year, as we have done for the last few years, we will be inviting our TV viewers to participate in our All Souls Day Mass here at St. John Gualbert. All Souls is a time when we remember all of our loved ones who have gone before us. If you would like to have a loved one remembered at our All Souls Day Mass, please fill out the form on page two of this newsletter. A candle will be lit and the names of your loved ones will be aired during communion on November 2nd. Thank you to everyone for joining us in continuing this tradition..

Please know that all of you and your families are always in our prayers.

~ Fr. Matt
