One of the great blessings of our Proclaim! Live TV Mass is that it is live on television. One of the great challenges of our Live TV Mass is that it's live on television. It's wonderful for people who are unable to attend mass for one reason or another to know that they are joining us live. Yet, at the same time, when something goes wrong, it's on display for everyone to see. In a world that can often be over-curved with social media, doing this life helps us stay in touch with our own humanity. Just like life, when something goes wrong, you can't go back for another take, you just have to keep going.

This month we had some pretty significant behind-the-scenes changes. After nearly 20 years of Satellite Broadcast, our Satellite feed has now been decommissioned. Instead, we're using a new modern technology called LiveU to share our broadcast with the TV Stations. That change-over did come with a few hiccups. As many of you noticed, our September 13th broadcast didn't air on WATM. I would like to give a special thank you to everyone who called us and WATM to report the issue. We determined the issue was on WATM's end, and we are working to make sure it doesn't happen again in the future.

If you typically watch us on WATM and there ever an issue with the mass, please check one of our other feeds. We also broadcast live on WPCB (Pittsburgh Faith & Family) which is channel 119 on Breezeline, 1185 on Comcast, and 472 on Verizon FiOS. Additionally, we stream live every Sunday on the Diocesan YouTube channel, <https://www.youtube.com/@DioceseofAltoona-Johnstown>. Please know that challenges do sometimes occur, but we are seriously committed as Fr Chuck would say, "to bring Mass to the Masses." Please keep us in your prayers.

This month I'm also pleased to share that we will again be inviting our TV Viewers to participate in our All Souls Day Mass here at St John Gualbert. All Souls is a time when we remember all of our loved ones who have gone before us, and we know many of our TV Viewers have lost loved ones they are praying for. If you would like to have a loved one remembered at our All Souls day, please fill out the form attached in the newsletter. A candle will be lit and all the names of your loved ones will be aired at the mass during communion on November 1st. Thank you to everyone for joining us in continuing tradition at our All Souls day mass.

Please know that all of you and your families are always in our prayers,

God Bless,
-Fr Matt
