A note from the pastor

St. Maron - Patron and Father of The Maronite Church (350 – 410)

St. Maron was a 5th century Syriac Christian monk who after his death was followed by a religious movement that became known as the Maronites. The Church that grew from this movement is the Maronite Church. St. Maron was known for his missionary work, healing and miracles, and teachings of a monastic devotion to God. St. Maron, born in the middle of the 4th century in Syria, was a priest who later became a hermit, retiring to a mountain of Taurus in the region of Cyrrhus, near Antioch. His holiness and miracles attracted many followers, and drew attention throughout the empire. St. John Chrysostom sent him a letter around AD 405 expressing his great love and respect, and asking St. Maron to pray for him. Maron is considered the Father of the spiritual and monastic movement now called the Maronite Catholic Church. This movement had a profound influence in Lebanon. St. Maron spent all of his life on a mountain in Syria. It is believed that the place was called "Kefar-Nabo" on the mountain of Ol-Yambos, making it the cradle of the Maronite movement.

The Maronite movement reached Lebanon when St. Maron's first disciple Abraham of Cyrrhus who was called the Apostle of Lebanon, realized that there were many non-Christians in Lebanon, so he set out to convert them to Christianity by introducing them to the way of St. Maron. The followers of St. Maron, both monks and laity, always remained faithful to the teachings of the Catholic Church. Maron's way was deeply monastic with emphasis on the spiritual and ascetic aspects of living.

St. Maron embraced the quiet solitude of the mountain life. He lived his life in open air exposed to the forces of nature such as sun, rain, hail and snow. His extraordinary desire to come to know God's presence in all things allowed St. Maron to transcend such forces and discover that intimate union with God.

St. Maron was a mystic who started this new ascetic-spiritual method that attracted many people in Syria and Lebanon to become his disciples. He sought not only to cure the physical ailments that people suffered, but had a great quest for nurturing and healing the "lost souls" of both non-Christians and Christians of his time.

After his death in the year 410, his spirit and teachings lived on through his disciples and today it is believed that he lies in "brad" village to the north of Aleppo.

Our bishop, Most Rev. A. Elias Zaidan will celebrate St. Maron Feast Day at St. Raymond Cathedral:

Sun. Feb. 1st 10:105 am-

All Officers/Members of the different Organizations/Committees are invited to come for a blessing and renewal of their service commitment at our church. Knights of St. Gregory, St. Sylvester, St. Maron, St. Sharbel, Massabki, Faith of the Mountain, and other medal recipients are encouraged to put on their medals for the Divine Liturgy.
