Announcements

Prelude

"Jesus Tempted in the Desert"

Philip Keveren

(Inspired by Beethoven's Symphony No. 7)

Centering Silence

Lent begins in the wilderness. It is someplace we have been before and it is a place of beginnings. The Spirit guides us through the messiness and blessings of the journey. Grace, abundant grace is a gift, nothing we earn. Begin again in the messiness, the blessings, and find you. This Lent we are invited to surrender to the wild leadings of the Spirit.

*Call to Worship

One: Today is the first Sunday in the season of Lent.

We are called into the Blessings of Messiness, a wilderness journey.

All: The Spirit that guides Jesus into the wilderness, also guides us in our journey, in the messiness, and blessings.

One: Jesus is shaped and formed for his ministry, while in the wilderness.

All: We too, in the messiness of our journey, in the wilderness are invited to surrender to the leadings of the Spirit and find grace.

One: Pause, and know that you are being held by the Spirit of grace.

*Hymn #547

"Amazing Grace"

Opening thoughts

One: The wilderness is a place of beginnings and can teach us who—and whose—we are. The wilderness can test our strength and faith, but it also shapes our identity and our call. The wilderness can be a place of abundant grace and hope as we are challenged in our journey, in the messiness of faith and blessings. On our journey through the wilderness this Lent, we will engage in positive and helpful ways as we live into God's abundant grace for us.

SCONES 101 WITH REGGIE

Make, take & bake—ingredients and recipe provided. If you've ever had one of Reggie's delicious scones you know this event is a must. So come find out her baking secrets and you can make perfect scones for your Easter brunch. Join us Sunday, March 29th at 11:30 in Thomas Hall. Please sign up at The Hub.

FINDING THE COURAGE FOR PEACE

Come listen. Come reflect. Come be part of the conversation.

Join us on Tuesday, March 24th at 6:00 PM in Thomas Hall for a timely and urgent conversation with Dan Toussant—leader with Pa Christi and co-founder of the Interfaith Coalition of Stark County. After 50 years of wrestling with faith, fear, and calling, Dan chose action—launching a grassroots peace movement rooted in the nonviolent teachings of Jesus. In a time marked by racism, gun violence, and deep division, his story challenges us to ask: “If not now. . .when?” Dan is also family to Michael DiLauro, making this evening especially meaningful for our Dover Community.

Open and Affirming Statement

Dover Congregational United Church of Christ is an Open and Affirming congregation. We affirm that God's grace is available to all. We welcome people of all ages, genders, races, views, abilities, sexual orientations, expressions and identities, ethnic educational and economic backgrounds into the full life and ministry of our church. We declare this in the name of God, whose Son, Jesus Christ, welcomed all people into God's circle of grace.

Just Peace Covenant

As a Just Peace church continuing the work of Jesus, we commit to work toward a world where all persons are treated with dignity and equality, where societies are structured in ways that promote the well-being of all people, and where conflicts are resolved through communication and negotiations, without resorting to exploitation or violence. We strive to embody these principles in our lives and witness as individuals and as a congregation. Our specific focus is: Just Peace in the community- so that all may live free from fear. Just Peace with the Earth – so that life is sustained. Just Peace in the marketplace- so that all may live with dignity. Just Peace among nations- so that human lives are protected. Through our worship, programs, and outreach we seek to be a community of reconciliation, hope, and courage as we work for peace and justice in our world.
