Psalm 119:105-112 CEV

One: Your word is a lamp before my feet and a light for my journey.

All: I have sworn, and I fully mean it: I will keep your righteous rules.

One: I have been suffering so much—Lord, make me live again according to your promise.

All: Please, Lord, accept my spontaneous gifts of praise. Teach me your rules!

One: Though my life is constantly in danger, I won't forget your Instruction.

All: Though the wicked have set a trap for me, I won't stray from your precepts.

One: Your laws are my possession forever because they are my heart's joy.

All: I have decided to keep your statutes forever, every last one.

Hymn #433

"In the Bulb There Is a Flower"

All: God of all wisdom, and of profound mystery: we are grateful for the signs and intimations you scatter in our world like so many seeds. By your grace, may they take root in our hearts and grow: that, one day, in the fullness of time, we may not only be welcomed into your eternal realm, but may recognize it as home. Amen.

Just Peace Covenant

As a Just Peace church continuing the work of Jesus, we commit to work toward a world where all persons are treated with dignity and equality, where societies are structured in ways that promote the well-being of all people, and where conflicts are resolved through communication and negotiations, without resorting to exploitation or violence. We strive to embody these principles in our lives and witness as individuals and as a congregation. Our specific focus is: Just Peace in the community- so that all may live free from fear. Just Peace with the Earth – so that life is sustained. Just Peace in the marketplace- so that all may live with dignity. Just Peace among nations- so that human lives are protected. Through our worship, programs, and outreach we seek to be a community of reconciliation, hope, and courage as we work for peace and justice in our world.
