

Reimagining Resiliency: The Resiliency Audit

A tool for organizations seeking collective resilience

Sailing Hawks Consulting is committed to making your organization more effective, innovative, and resilient. We provide resiliency consulting and hands-on assistance with your Resiliency Audit. In addition to brainstorming and troubleshooting, we are also available to conduct your audit, provide leadership trainings, assist with resiliency planning, and implementing your resiliency plan. To ensure accessibility, we also provide a sliding fee scale for qualifying organizations. Reach out today for a free consultation.
