GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 3, 2025

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

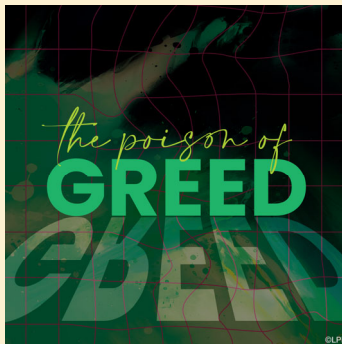

Luke 12:13-21

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

— Father John Muir

Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for a sole intention of Fr. Novak, Fr. Jones, and Fr. Manti— a “holy wasting” (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

We want to pray especially for the physical, mental and spiritual health of Archbishop Coakley & all priests in the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City, that they may be filled with grace constantly as they pour out so much for our parish communities. Will you answer the call? If interested in SSA, Contact Nadine Kushnir (405) 615-0915.

AUGUST – A MONTH DEDICATED TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

Deacon Zsolt Nagykaldi

You have seen it in many Catholic churches throughout the world. You might have passed it like any other pious art, or you might have wondered if it can mean anything to you in this “post-modern” world. I am speaking about the image of the Immaculate Heart of Mary pierced with swords. From the old icons of the Theotokos – Virgin Mary of Seven Sorrows and flowery Baroque paintings of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the Blessed Mother is looking at us with a yearning and gentle gaze and pointing at her heart pierced with swords or surrounded by a crown of thorns. But what does this image mean to us here and now?

The Immaculate Heart of Mary has been celebrated for centuries, yet a relatively more recent event gave it modern significance when in 1942, at the height of WWII, Venerable Pope Pius the XII, consecrated humanity to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It was the 25th anniversary of the Fatima apparitions which forewarned the world about the great evils of the 20th Century and called for urgent conversion.

The Blessed Mother speaks only in four passages in Scripture (at the Annunciation, the Magnificat, the Child Jesus in the Temple, and the Wedding at Cana), yet her actions and silent but active reflection speak just as loudly as her words. From these we can see that the Church’s portrayal of her Immaculate Heart is not a sentimental or “outdated” pious image but something at the heart of our Christian life and discipleship in every age.

So, what is in those eyes and what does that pure heart tell us? We should look no further than our Blessed Mother’s Magnificat, which is a masterpiece of blending the great prayers of thanksgiving from the Jewish Scriptures (e.g., the prayer of Hannah) with amazing personal inspirations that can only come from a heart that is truly free. While those typical prayers of Scripture express mixed attitudes that include praising and thanking God but also the fear of enemies and the ever-present “shadow of death” (e.g., Canticle of Zechariah), Mary’s prayer is pure thanksgiving, joy, humility, and deep trust, even when she makes factual statements about how God addresses evil.

This shows that Mary’s heart has been given completely to God, and it has been overtaken by grace, leaving no room for fear, conflicted attitudes, and the usual complexities (or messiness) of our fallen human nature.

So why then the swords or crown of thorns and suffering? It is because an immaculate heart is not exempt from suffering here on earth, as some may suggest, but the opposite! All the evil it encounters wounds it even more because it is not numbed to the colossal reality of evil’s effects or lulled into complacency regarding the stark contrast between what is right (true) and wrong (false), as we tend to be.

This suffering is then all the more meritorious, because there is no participation in the wrong (i.e., guilt), yet there is innocent suffering from its effects. While the Queen Mother of the Messiah King reigns gloriously in Heaven, mysteriously, she also participates in the saving mission of her Son, which unfolds on earth, where the members of the Church “complete what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ” (cf. Col 1:24).

How much Mary is our Blessed Mother, who offers this perfect motherly love as she intercedes for her wayward children with her divine Son! With the greatest sensitivity to our grave needs, her immaculate heart knows no limits as she contributes to our redemption and the redemption of humanity.

*O heart of Mary, pure and fair,
No beauty can with thine compare;
From ev’ry stain of sin thou’rt free;
O make us pure in heart like thee.*
- Sisters of Notre Dame (St. Basil’s Hymnal)

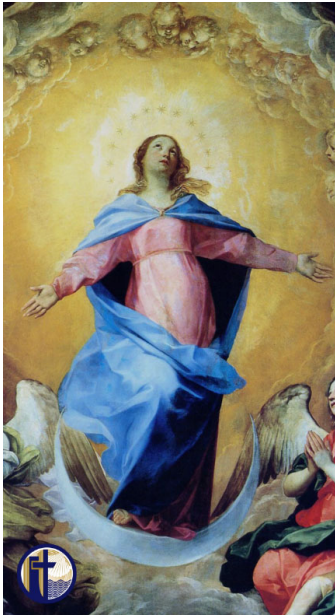

—Deacon Zsolt Nagykaldi

With the greatest sensitivity to our grave needs, her immaculate heart knows no limits as she contributes to our redemption and the redemption of humanity.

Spiritual Direction at St. John’s

Spiritual Direction is a process guided by the Holy Spirit in which two people enter into a unique conversation. The Spiritual Director is trained to listen in a particular way to hear where God is present and acting in the life of another. The primary focus of Spiritual Direction is on a person’s experience of God, often occurring in prayer, but not limited to times of formal prayer. Spiritual Direction is most concerned with helping a person with his or her relationship with God. If you are interested in Spiritual Direction to deepen your own personal relationship with Jesus, reach out to Erin Snow at esnow@stjohn-catholic.org or (405) 340-0691.

We Celebrate Children at St. John's

PARENTS

- 1 Relax! God put the wiggle in children. Don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house.
- 2 Sit toward the front where it's easier for them to see and hear. Quietly explain the parts of the Mass.
- 3 Sing the songs, pray and say the responses. Children learn by copying you.
- 4 Feel free to leave Mass if you need to, but please come back!
- 5 The way we welcome children in Church affects how they see the Church. Let them know they are at home here.

EVERYONE

Please be supportive of parents and children at Mass. They are our future! Here are some easy ways to be welcoming:

- 1 Smile!
- 2 Offer a kind word.
- 3 Pray for them.

St. Paul On The Power Of The Cross

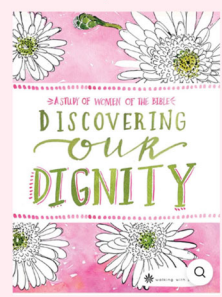

St. Paul returned to the theme of the Cross over and over again as he taught Christians about salvation and exhorted them to worship. As Bible scholar and popular EWTN host Fr. Mitch Pacwa unveils St. Paul's words, you'll discover just how profoundly the Cross affected this apostle, equipping him for evangelization and helping him overcome strife. What is your cross, and how can you use it to better follow Jesus? How can you follow St. Paul's example in offering up sufferings to be united with Christ's Cross? How can the centrality of Jesus dying on the Cross help overcome divisions in the Christian Church today? Join us for this six-week study, August 6-September 10 from 10-11:30 am in the St. Raphael House, located at 114 E 10th Street. Scan the QR code to register and purchase the book.
