KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
COUNCIL 6477

Our Commitment
The Knights of Columbus is built around four basic principles: charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism. The Knights provide financial and physical support to numerous organizations, help those in need, provide an insurance program to members, and display a profound love of country. In addition, the Knights fully support the mission of our parish, clergy, ministries, and the needs of our surrounding community.

What We Do
We provide assistance with home programs, donate to the Samaritan House, Project Gabriel, Center of Family Love, Peru Mission, and the Prison Ministry. The Knights provide a monthly pancake breakfast, serve at the Lenten Fish Fry, support the youth group, and display our "colors" at the town Fourth of July parade. In addition, the Knights serve the parish in whatever capacity they deem appropriate by providing funding and manpower as needed. This is truly a faith-based organization.

Congratulations to the following upon their recognition as October Knight of the Month … Josh Ashton
October Family of the Month … Robert & Marisa Singletary

LET US GIVE PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

BY DEACON RICHARD ROSENCRANS

November is a month of thanksgiving. Although the American holiday of Thanksgiving often dominates our thoughts, the entire month offers many opportunities to reflect on gratitude.

On November 1st, we give thanks for the holy men and women who have gone before us and shown us the path to holiness that leads to heaven. On the 2nd, we commemorate all the faithful departed, especially those we miss. Soon afterward, on the 11th, we honor the brave men and women who served and fought to protect our American Republic. Each of these special days invites us to reflect on their sacrifices, the good they worked so hard to accomplish, and what their example means for our lives. On the 22nd, the Feast of Christ the King, we turn our thoughts to the One who opened the gates of heaven so we might enjoy eternal life in Paradise.

We close this month of gratitude on the 26th by commemorating the first Thanksgiving celebrations. After a brutal first year in the New World, the Pilgrims gave thanks to God and the local Indigenous people who welcomed them, taught them to survive in an unfamiliar land, and helped them produce a bountiful harvest. The three-day festival of 1621 reflected the Pilgrims' worldview, which credited God for their blessings. In 1623, after rain saved their failing crops, the Plymouth colony dedicated another day to prayer, fasting, and solemn thanksgiving. We therefore give thanks for those who helped establish the country and passed down the hope, courage, strength, and knowledge needed to move forward in the face of every new struggle.

"God be praised, we had a good increase of Indian corn … [and] … by the goodness of God, we are… far from want." Edward Winslow (a leader of the Plymouth Colony and a signer of the Mayflower Compact)

This first celebration gave rise to our American civil observance, which has evolved over the years. Today, it often seems like a time to gather with family and watch football. For our family, Thanksgiving time also brings a wedding anniversary and several birthdays, giving us even more reasons to be grateful. Certainly, every family has special reasons to be grateful this month.

"When I started counting my blessings, my whole life turned around." Willie Nelson

The secular world has long recognized the emotional and psychological benefits of gratitude. Christian believers, however, have always understood that gratitude also yields profound spiritual benefits.

"Someday we will thank God not only for what He gave us but also for that which He refused." "God is still good even though He does not give me whatever I WANT in this world. He gives me only what I NEED for the next." Blessed Fulton Sheen Fulton Sheen's understanding of gratitude is more than a polite response to blessings. It is a way of seeing our lives as gifts and of returning ourselves to God in love. Thanksgiving begins with recognizing God's gifts. We are often unhappy because we focus on what we lack rather than on what we have received. Gratitude reverses this tendency. It teaches us to recognize life, family, friendship, faith, creation, forgiveness, and every genuine good as gifts rather than entitlements. Ingratitude breeds resentment, envy, and self-pity, while gratitude recognizes that God and others love us.

Take time to reflect on gratitude. Consider the faithful departed; the holy men and women of God; living and deceased veterans; the founders of our American experience; and the Savior of the world. Who comes to mind first? Who most transforms your worldview? Whose experiences offer you a path to living a good Christian life? Give praise and thanksgiving for all that is forming you into a saint prepared for life beyond this world. Thank God for the good works of those who have done so much, for the blessings in your life, for the needs He has met, and even for the wants He has not granted.

May we pray in gratitude, as St. Ignatius of Loyola:

"Take, Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will. All I have or possess, You have given to me; dispose of it according to Your will. Your love and Your grace are enough for me."

-Deacon Richard Rosencrans
