For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day." - Jn 6:39-40

Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for a sole intention of Fr. Novak, Fr. Jones, and Fr. Manti—a “holy wasting” (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

We want to pray especially for the physical, mental and spiritual health of Archbishop Coakley & all priests in the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City, that they may be filled with grace constantly as they pour out so much for our parish communities. Will you answer the call? If interested in SSA, Contact Nadine Kushnir (405) 615-0915.

REST IN PEACE

Father Stephen Jones

Requiescat in Pace. “May he rest in peace,” or R.I.P. This very common saying has become adopted by the world as a way to remember someone who has died. Yet, like many things in the world, it has deep roots as a deeply Catholic and Christian prayer! We see it in the ancient Catholic prayer for a deceased person:

Eternal Rest, grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.

This year, Halloween, All Saint’s Day, and All Souls Day falls on a weekend. This providential occurrence allows us to reflect deeply upon what has traditionally been called in the Catholic tradition as “the Four Last Things,” or Death, Judgment, Heaven and Hell. Like our Savior who has gone before us, each of us will be faced with the reality of death in our lives. When we die, we will experience judgment for how we lived our lives from the just and merciful Judge. Upon being judged by Christ, we will inherit our eternal reward. This will be either heaven, achieved through the grace of God and through our virtuous way of life, or hell, based on our own choices to separate ourselves from the love and mercy of God.

This is our great goal and aim of life: to be a saint and to behold God face to face eternally in the heavenly homeland!

Halloween, or All Hallows Eve, is the anticipatory vigil celebration of the great feast day on November 1st where we recognize all the saints in heaven. The saints consist both of those souls known to us as the canonized saints, along with those blessed souls known only to God. This is our great goal and aim of life: to be a saint and to behold God face to face eternally in the heavenly homeland!

On November 2nd, we celebrate All Souls Day. This is a day where we intentionally offer up prayers, specifically the sacrifice of the Mass, for the faithful departed who are being purified in Purgatory. Purgatory is a temporary state of affairs:

no one in Purgatory will be there forever. Everyone there will eventually be in heaven. We have the firm hope and confidence that God is a good Father who is merciful and desires his children to rest eternally with Him in heaven as saints. To this end, he bids us to pray for the dead who are still in need of some purification, that through the merits of the Passion of Christ, they may be completely cleansed from the effects of the sins from their lives after death.

This weekend, let us reclaim Halloween as a truly Catholic holiday, or holy day. May we remember to pray for the faithful departed and remember our own great aim in life: to become a saint!

—Father Stephen Jones

PERU OUTREACH

THE BLIND SHALL SEE

Peru Outreach—Eye Mission Team

I went to Peru for the first time in 2002 on a family mission trip. We arrived in the morning and that afternoon we were driven around the villages of Piura. My senses were overwhelmed. The sights, sounds and smells were a shock to the system and immediately my world view was changed. I had never before witnessed that level of poverty up close. Friday of that week, Fr. Joe invited us to join him in taking communion to the homebound. I wish I could describe what a moving and spiritual experience that was for me. Many of the people we visited were bedridden, living with disabilities or blind.

As a nurse, my instincts kicked in and I wanted to do whatever I could to help them. I saw so many needs. I knew our church was sending medical missions, but there had to be more that we could do. As a surgical nurse, I knew that surgical interventions can often change people's lives. Returning to Oklahoma, going about my daily routine and putting aside the needs of all the poor I met in Peru wasn't possible. I wasn't the same person that I was before that trip. God's call and sheer compassion took over. My husband said we should take two weeks to pray and think about it before deciding to do anything. After two weeks, he asked me what my thoughts were. I told him, "I think we have wasted two weeks. Let's get to work." I began working on a plan to add surgery to our medical work in Peru.

Logically, cataract surgery was a reasonable place to start since it was a day surgery and no anesthesia was necessary. After seeing so many people struggling with blindness, I knew there was a need for eye care. Then, with Fr. Joe's blessing, I got busy! I began, only with courage from God, going through the phone book listings of ophthalmologists and calling each one until I found a doctor willing to go to Peru to do cataract surgery. When I finally got to a doctor that agreed, I volunteered that year to work in his surgery center, learning everything I needed to know about cataract surgery. Since all my experience had been in women's surgery, I had a lot to learn.

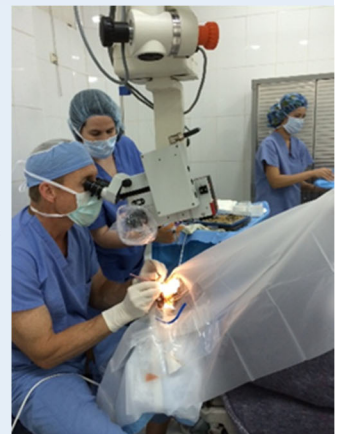

By the next summer, two more surgeons and the supervisor from the surgery center volunteered to go on that first eye surgery mission in 2003. With the grace of God, many miracles happened and about 50 people had their sight restored that first year. With doctors from all over the country, we've returned to do eye surgery in Piura every year since then. There are so many stories I could tell of miracles and people's lives that have been changed, but truly the life that was the most changed was my own. That first trip to Peru completely altered the direction of my life and since then, I have followed that new path that God continues to lead me down. God has provided and blessed the eye mission each year with doctors and supplies, but I feel blessed the most, because I get to do His amazing work.

UNBOUND PRAYER SESSIONS

1ST TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH

UPCOMING SESSION: NOVEMBER 4

6-7:30 PM

Please email Unbound.OK@gmail.com to register for a prayer session.

During a private, confidential Unbound prayer session, individuals are guided to identify and move beyond the spiritual obstacles that prevent them from moving forward in their relationship with Jesus Christ and the Church. This method of prayer addresses areas of pain, sin, and weakness and leads us to lay claim to the freedom that is ours through our Baptism.

PARISH COMMUNITY

8 Ways to Support THOSE WHO ARE GRIEVING

"Grieving alone is grieving extended and deepened."

- Doug Manning

- 1 BE COMPASSIONATE & EMPATHETIC
Sit with them in their grief: e.g. "That must really hurt." Don't try to explain it away.
- 2 PROVIDE A LISTENING EAR
Talking can be very healing. Plus, words can hurt whilst listening generally cannot!
- 3 GIVE A HUG IF APPROPRIATE
A firm, reassuring hug can release Oxytocin, which creates a feeling of calm and a host of other health benefits.
- 4 LET THEM GRIEVE IN THEIR OWN WAY & TIME
There is no "normal" way to grieve, and no timeline.
- 5 SHOW YOUR SUPPORT & CARE
Send a note, flowers, schedule a Mass intention, or some other touch to show your care.
- 6 REMEMBER THEIR LOVED ONE & CONTINUE TO TALK ABOUT THEM LOVINGLY
It can hurt when everyone else seems to have forgotten, especially on special days like holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, etc.
- 7 DON'T TAKE ANYTHING PERSONALLY
They may not want to talk, may seem distant, or may even lash out. Everyone grieves differently; try not to take it to heart.
- 8 PRAY FOR THEM & THEIR LOST LOVED ONE
Lift them, their family, and their lost loved one up in prayer. Say a rosary, light a prayer candle, etc.

"Safe people are the ones who simply listen. I think you need three H's. You need someone to Hang Around, Hug You, and Hush. You do not need advice, you need ears. Someone to just quietly hear your pain."

- Doug Manning

We have a lost and found!
Did you know we have a lost and found? If you are missing something, please check the lost and found cabinet underneath the Blessed Stanley Rother Reliquary in the upper level of the church.

We Celebrate Children at St. John's

PARENTS

- 1 Relax! God put the wiggle in children. Don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house.
- 2 Sit toward the front where it's easier for them to see and hear. Quietly explain the parts of the Mass.
- 3 Sing the songs, pray and say the responses. Children learn by copying you.
- 4 Feel free to leave Mass if you need to, but please come back!
- 5 The way we welcome children in Church affects how they see the Church. Let them know they are at home here.

EVERYONE

Please be supportive of parents and children at Mass. They are our future! Here are some easy ways to be welcoming:

- 1 Smile!
- 2 Offer a kind word.
- 3 Pray for them.

Spiritual Direction at St. John's

Spiritual Direction is a process guided by the Holy Spirit in which two people enter into a unique conversation. The Spiritual Director is trained to listen in a particular way to hear where God is present and acting in the life of another. The primary focus of Spiritual Direction is on a person's experience of God, often occurring in prayer, but not limited to times of formal prayer. Spiritual Direction is most concerned with helping a person with his or her relationship with God. If you are interested in Spiritual Direction to deepen your own personal relationship with Jesus, reach out to Erin Snow at esnow@stjohn-catholic.org or (405) 340-0691.
