Revelation

Why is Revelation important?

“The self-disclosure of the living God and his plan to save us.”

It is what God has revealed to His Church about Himself and what it takes to be saved.

Heb. 1:1-4

1 In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets;

2 in these last days, he spoke to us through a son, whom he made heir of all things and through whom he created the universe,

3 who is the refulgence of his glory,

the very imprint of his being,

and who sustains all things by his mighty word.

When he had accomplished purification from sins, he took his seat at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

4 as far superior to the angels

as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Prologue of John

¹In the beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.

²He was in the beginning with God...

⁶A man named John was sent from God. ⁷He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him...

¹⁴And the Word became flesh
and made his dwelling among us,
and we saw his glory,
the glory as of the Father's only Son,
full of grace and truth.
