

Volunteer or Employees under Age 18

Introduction

The intention of the Code of Conduct is to propel the youth of our Diocese to be “imitators of God as beloved children, and walk in love” by conforming their thoughts, words, and actions to the “mind... which is yours in Christ Jesus,” and by following his example (CCC 1694.) It is meant to ensure a safe, healthy, and moral environment for youth in any Diocesan or parish/school setting. This Code is a reminder that we are all created with dignity in the image and likeness of God (Gen. 1:26-28.)

Pope John Paul II challenged young people to heroic faith. In his message for World Youth Day 2002, he exhorted them “not to be content with anything less than the highest ideals!” He also said, “If you have an ardent desire for the Lord, you will steer clear of the mediocrity and conformity so widespread in our society...” This Code aids in the creation of an environment that aspires to the highest of standards and ideals.

The content of this Code is inspired by the Holy Father’s message, Jesus “great commandment” (Matt 22:36-40) of love and the God given dignity of each person. This Code is one of Christian kindness, respect, hospitality, and care, which will provide an ability to defeat mediocrity and conformity. The Code also reflects Christian stewardship and our proper duty and respect towards places and things.

The following code may be used in conjunction with existing Diocesan, parish, and school policies, protocols, or codes.

Responsibility Toward God– “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to them, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment.” (Matt 22:36-38)

- By using God’s name and the name of Jesus Christ only with respect, and never in careless, abusive, or angry manner.
- By respectfully participating in prayer and worship.
- By faithfully representing the teachings of the Catholic Church with integrity in word and action.
- By showing respect to the Creator by taking care of God’s creation.

Responsibility Towards Self– “... whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, of there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, Then God of peace will be with you.”

- By being mindful that God created each of us in His image and likeness participants will act accordingly:
 - By being truthful, understanding, open minded, gracious, reliable, and respectful

Responsibility Toward Others– “The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The Whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” (Matt 22:39-40)

- By respecting the role of adult leaders and administrators and established guidelines.
- By reporting immediately to a responsible adult anytime I see the safety of another in jeopardy.
