President IACP, Italy

INDIA'S FIRST STUDENT CENTERED CAMPUS

Person Centered, Student Centered Education

"The only person who is educated is the one who has learned how to learn and change." Carl Rogers

At GIIMS, our campus takes pride in being directly guided by a team led by Dr. Alberto Zucconi from Italy, promoting student-centered education and pedagogy to shape the leaders of tomorrow.

The Person-Centered Approach (PCA), pioneered by Dr. Carl Rogers, is a scientifically validated, holistic method that applies to various fields, including psychology, education, medicine, social work, and management. At its core, PCA emphasizes that individuals possess immense inner resources for self-awareness, attitude shifts, and self-guided growth. These resources flourish when nurtured in an environment of trust, respect, empathy, and authenticity.

Unlike traditional teaching, PCA focuses on fostering learning by creating growth-driven, supportive interpersonal relationships. This approach encourages creativity, resilience, and accountability over dependency, as noted by Barrett-Lennard (1998) and Dr. Alberto Zucconi (2008, 2011, 2013).

Person-Centered Education (PCE), often called student-centered education, develops essential transferable skills like problem-solving, critical thinking, and self-reflection. By making values explicit, students are empowered to take proactive, critical roles in their communities and grow into fully functioning, responsible members of society.

CONVOCAATION CEREMONY

CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND CORPORATE RELATIONS

GIIMS- Institute of Logistics is providing Internship and Placement Assistance through a dedicated Career Development and Corporate Relation team (CDCR). feedback on our students' job performance and internship experiences, leveraging our alumni's industry track record. This enables us to maintain strong relationships with current hiring clients and expand our industry reach across India.

Experience is an unavoidable factor in getting a job. Internship is a form of work experience and work knowledge given by an employer to the student for an exposure to the working environment in the logistics industry as a social commitment.
