A Protestant church in the worldwide
Anglican Communion.

The Third Sunday of Easter

May 4, 2025

Before the Service — Speak quietly to God
During the Service — Let God speak to you
After the Service — Speak to one another

LITURGICAL SEASON EXPLAINED

The season after Easter Day until Pentecost is called the Easter Season or Eastertide and lasts 50 days. The central theme of Eastertide is the resurrection of Jesus and the promise of new life, hope and redemption. This is the most joyful season in the Christian calendar, the mood is bright and triumphant. The scripture readings focus on the appearances of the risen Christ and the beginnings of the Christian community with the missionary work of the apostles. The liturgical color is white, symbolizing joy and purity.

FIRST READING Acts 9:1-20

Reader A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."

RESPONSE Psalm 30 - Exaltabo te, Domine

*Verses read alternately by the reader and people, breaking at the **

¹I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up*
and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

²O Lord my God, I cried out to you,*
and you restored me to health.

³You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead;*
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

⁴Sing to the Lord, you servants of his;*
give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.

⁵For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye,*
his favor for a lifetime.

⁶Weeping may spend the night,*
but joy comes in the morning.

⁷While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be disturbed.*"
You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."

⁸Then you hid your face,*
and I was filled with fear.

⁹I cried to you, O Lord;*
I pleaded with the Lord, saying,

¹⁰"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit?*" will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?

¹¹Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me;*
O Lord, be my helper."

¹²You have turned my wailing into dancing;*
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

¹³Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing;*
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

SECOND READING Revelation 5:11-14

Reader A reading from the Book of Revelation.

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing,

"To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL HYMN: He Will Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd

1 He will feed his flock like a shep - herd;
 2 By his rod and staff he will lead them.
 3 They will lie in peace in green pas - tures.
 4 When they hear his voice, they will fol - low.

He will feed his flock like a shep - herd;
 By his rod and staff he will lead them.
 They will lie in peace in green pas - tures.
 When they hear his voice, they will fol - low.

He will feed his flock like a shep - herd,
 By his rod and staff he will lead them,
 They will lie in peace in green pas - tures,
 When they hear his voice, they will fol - low;

 and they will not go a - stray.
 and he will keep watch near - by.
 he calls each one by name.

GOSPEL

John 21:1-19

The Rev. Steve Steinberger-Domienik

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People* Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

Celebrant The Gospel of our Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

HOMILY

The Rev. Steve Steinberger-Domienik

THE APOSTLES' CREED

This an ancient baptismal creed, but using the words "I give my heart," a truer translation of the Latin word "credo" than "I believe."

I give my heart to God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I give my heart to Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried, and descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I give my heart to the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic and apostolic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. AMEN.

DOXOLOGY: Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Please stand as you are able

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People* The Lord is risen indeed!

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People* We lift them up to our God.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God.

People* It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues:

Glorious God, we give you thanks and praise, for at his resurrection, Christ burst forth from the tomb to break the tangles of despair and death and to shine forth the divine love once again. Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with the eternal chorus of all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of pow - er and might.

5 Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est!

9 Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est!

Celebrant continues:

All loving and embracing God, we give thanks for Jesus, the risen Lord of life, who rose victorious from the grave and made the whole creation new. He broke bread with sinners, fed the hungry and healed the oppressed; then he poured out his life in death that we might live in love.

People Christ is risen from the dead. Love is come again.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples saying, "Take, eat: This is my body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said, "Drink this all of you: This is my blood of the new covenant poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

People Christ is risen from the dead. Love is come again.

Recalling his life, death, and glorious resurrection, we offer you these gifts of bread and wine as well as our lives, in thanks and praise. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be for us the body and blood of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Breathe your Spirit upon the whole earth that we may proclaim good news to the entire world and rise together as children of your new creation.

Then bring us to that new heaven, O God, where death and pain are no more and where you will dwell with us forever.

For it is through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, and by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that all glory and honor are yours all loving God, now and forever.

AMEN.

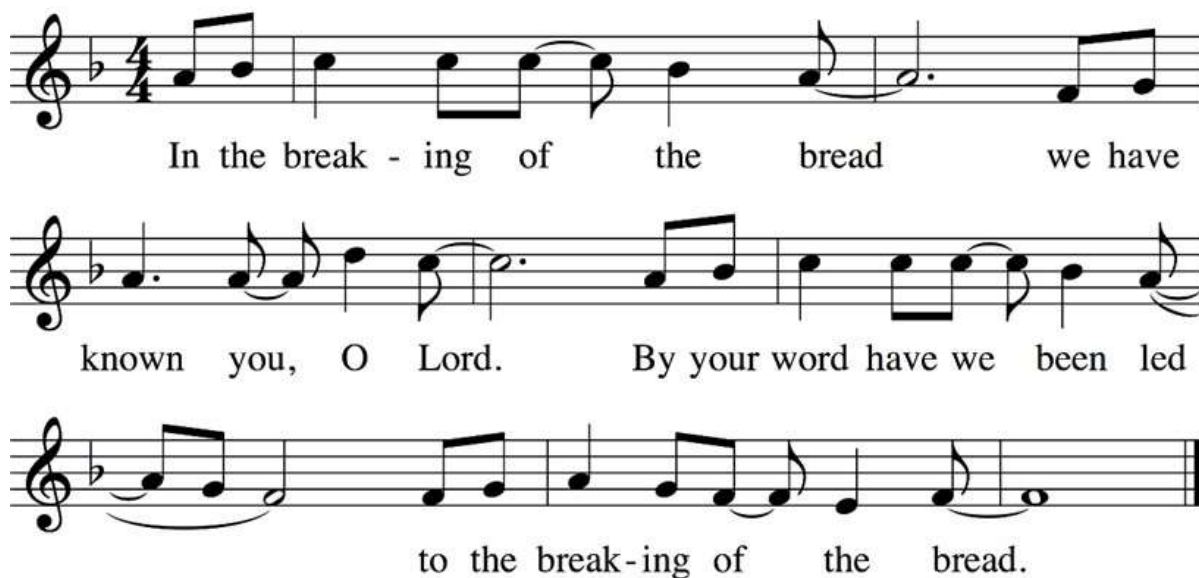

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant says:

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father in heaven, holy is your Name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. AMEN.

FRACTIO: Emmaus

In the break - ing of the bread we have known you, O Lord. By your word have we been led to the break-ing of the bread.

Celebrant The Gifts of God, for all of us, the holy people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith and with thanksgiving.

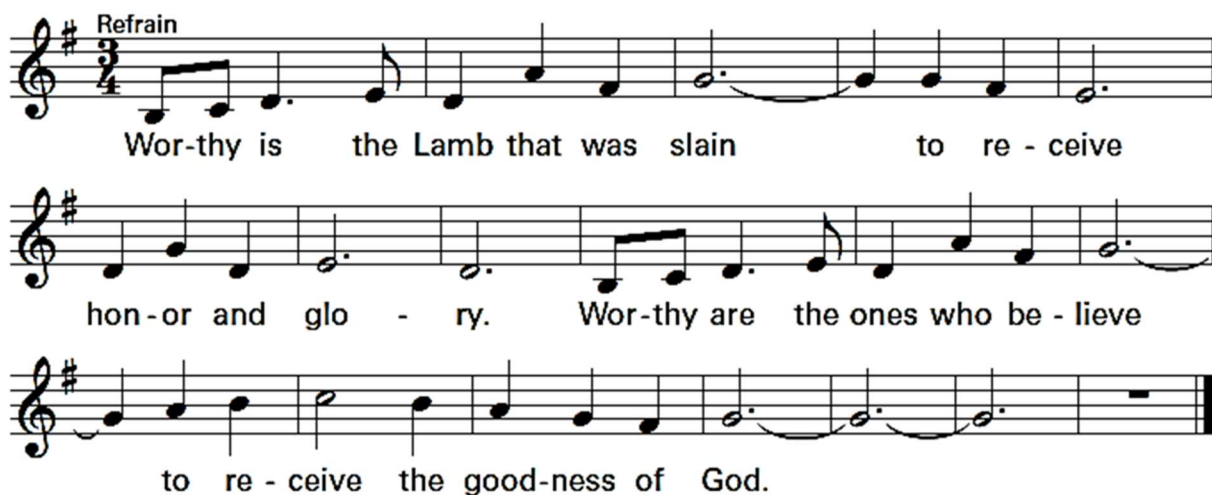

COMMUNION

Communion at Grace is Open to Everyone

Whoever you are, where you find yourself on the journey of faith, there is a place for you at God's table. You may choose to receive bread (gluten free wafers available upon request). You may choose to receive wine in the silver chalice or grape juice in the white and blue chalice. You may drink from either cup or intinct (dip) the bread into the chalice. You may refrain from the bread and chalice and just receive a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant Let us pray.

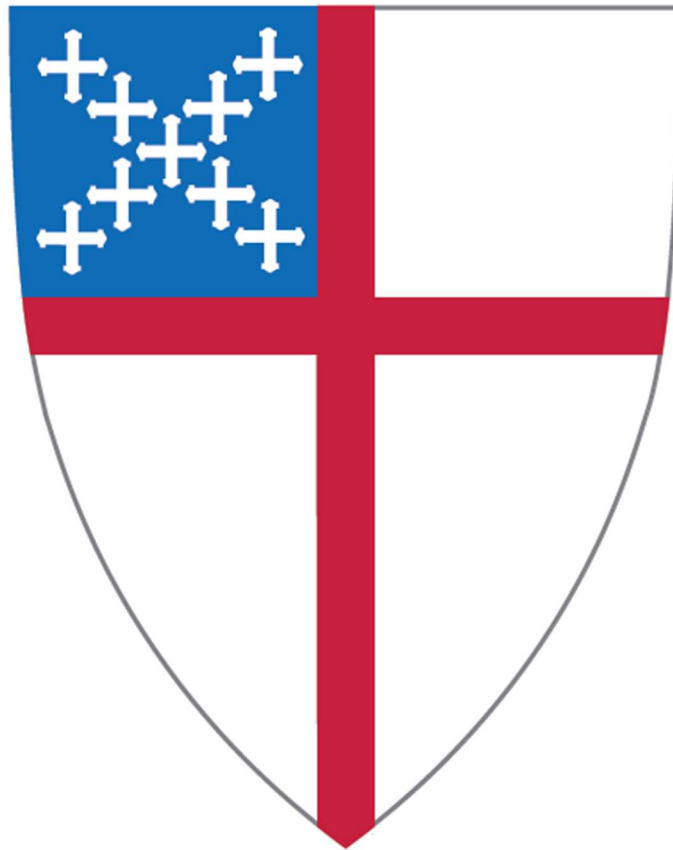

Celebrant and People say together:

God of all, we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off you met us in your Son and brought us home. Dying and living, he declared your love, gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory. May we who share Christ's body live his risen life; we who drink his cup bring life to others; we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world. Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us, so we and all your children shall be free, and the whole earth live to praise your name; through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

BLESSING

May the strength of God sustain us; may the power of God preserve us; may the hands of God protect us; may the way of God direct us: and may the Almighty bless us this day and always, in the name of the Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier.

AMEN.

CURRENT ANNOUNCEMENTS

GARDEN UPDATE

The garden project is underway! B&G are working on burying the downspouts, then the grass seed will go down. We've also put down Preen to help reduce weeding. Many daffodils have been newly relocated this year out by Gratiot. This will really look nice next spring! The Master Gardener is working on moving other plants as well.

We're looking for anyone interested in hostas. Contact Lori Simon and she'll show you what you can dig up and rehome. Once we're downsized, we should still have a lot of color, just much less to maintain.

Gardening can be done at any time by anyone. If you have any questions, just ask Lori.

OFFICE HOURS

Office hours will be as needed from April 1 through May 5; if you have any questions or want to schedule a meeting, please call the office at 586-465-4573.

BOOK CLUB AT GRACE

The next meeting of the book club will be on May 8, 2025, at 6 PM in the Guild Room at Grace Church. The book we will discuss is Whistling Past the Graveyard by Susan Crandall. Please plan to join us for a pleasant evening of discussion of the book and general conversation to get to know each other better.

MCREST

We will be sheltering 30 men from May 18-25 and are looking for volunteers. Currently we are in need of people who can make dinners as well as some men who would be able to help with the night shifts. If you are interested in helping, there will be sign-up sheets on the bulletin board in the hallway between the church and the social hall.

ALTAR FLOWERS

The altar flowers were given by Sue Sargent in memory of her husband Dale. Please sign up for altar flowers on the bulletin board in the hallway.

CHOIR

Please join us for choir rehearsals on Wednesdays at 6:30 PM in the sanctuary. No experience required; just bring your spirited heart and a friend! Thank you!

COFFEE HOUR

Please volunteer to host a coffee hour; the sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board in the hallway. The host(s) makes and sets up the coffee and any snacks and then cleans up afterwards. You may also be reimbursed for any money you spend for snacks—just let Marchea (in the office) know! Thank you for sharing in the hospitality ministry of our parish!

BIBLE STUDY

Please join us on Sundays at 9:30 AM in the Guild Room for our Bible study. No preparation needed; just come and listen and join in the conversation. Each session is self-contained so you do not have to attend each week; come when you can. We learn a great deal about Scripture, our faith, ourselves, and each other! Hope to see you there!
