The Last Sunday After the Epiphany

February 15, 2026

*Before the Service — Speak quietly to God
During the Service — Let God speak to you
After the Service — Speak to one another*

LITURGICAL SEASON EXPLAINED

The word “Epiphany” as defined in the dictionary has two meanings. When the word is capitalized, it refers to God being revealed to the world in the person of Jesus. In lowercase, the term applies to any display of a deity. We typically use the word today to describe any insightful or dramatic moment that instills new spiritual insight, vision, or perspective into our lives. An epiphany is not something to be hidden; rather, it is something to be shared. God was revealed to the world in Bethlehem in the form of a newborn baby. The news of the Epiphany was shared with the shepherds in Luke’s Gospel, while in Matthew’s Gospel, the news is shared with the Magi. These Gentiles wanted to see for themselves how God chose to come into the world, and we are invited to do the same. The season of Epiphany starts on January 6 and ends the day before Ash Wednesday. The liturgical color is green.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. AMEN.

FIRST READING Exodus 24:12-18

Reader A reading from the book of Exodus.

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

RESPONSE Psalm 2 – Quare fremuerunt gentes?

Verses read alternately by the reader and people, breaking at the  ¹Why are the nations in an uproar?

Why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

²Why do the kings of the earth rise up in revolt,
and the princes plot together,*

against the Lord and against his Anointed?

³"Let us break their yoke," they say;*

"let us cast off their bonds from us."

⁴He whose throne is in heaven is laughing;*

the Lord has them in derision.

⁵Then he speaks to them in his wrath,*

and his rage fills them with terror.

⁶"I myself have set my king*

upon my holy hill of Zion."

⁷Let me announce the decree of the Lord:*

he said to me, "You are my Son;
this day have I begotten you.

⁸Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance* and the ends of the earth for your possession.

⁹You shall crush them with an iron rod* and shatter them like a piece of pottery."

¹⁰And now, you kings, be wise;*

be warned, you rulers of the earth.

¹¹Submit to the Lord with fear,*

and with trembling bow before him;

¹²Lest he be angry and you perish;*
for his wrath is quickly kindled.

¹³Happy are they all*
who take refuge in him!

SECOND READING 2 Peter 1:16-21

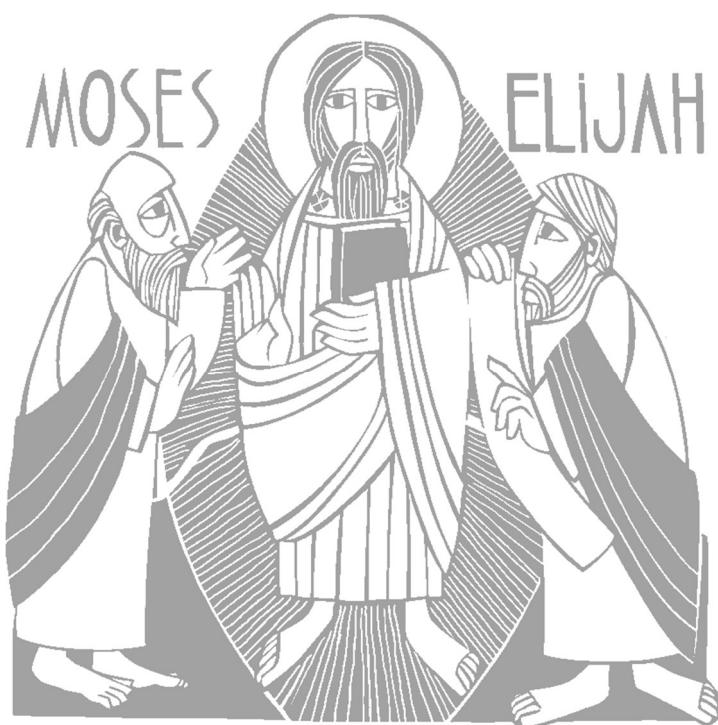

Reader A reading from the second letter of Peter.

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

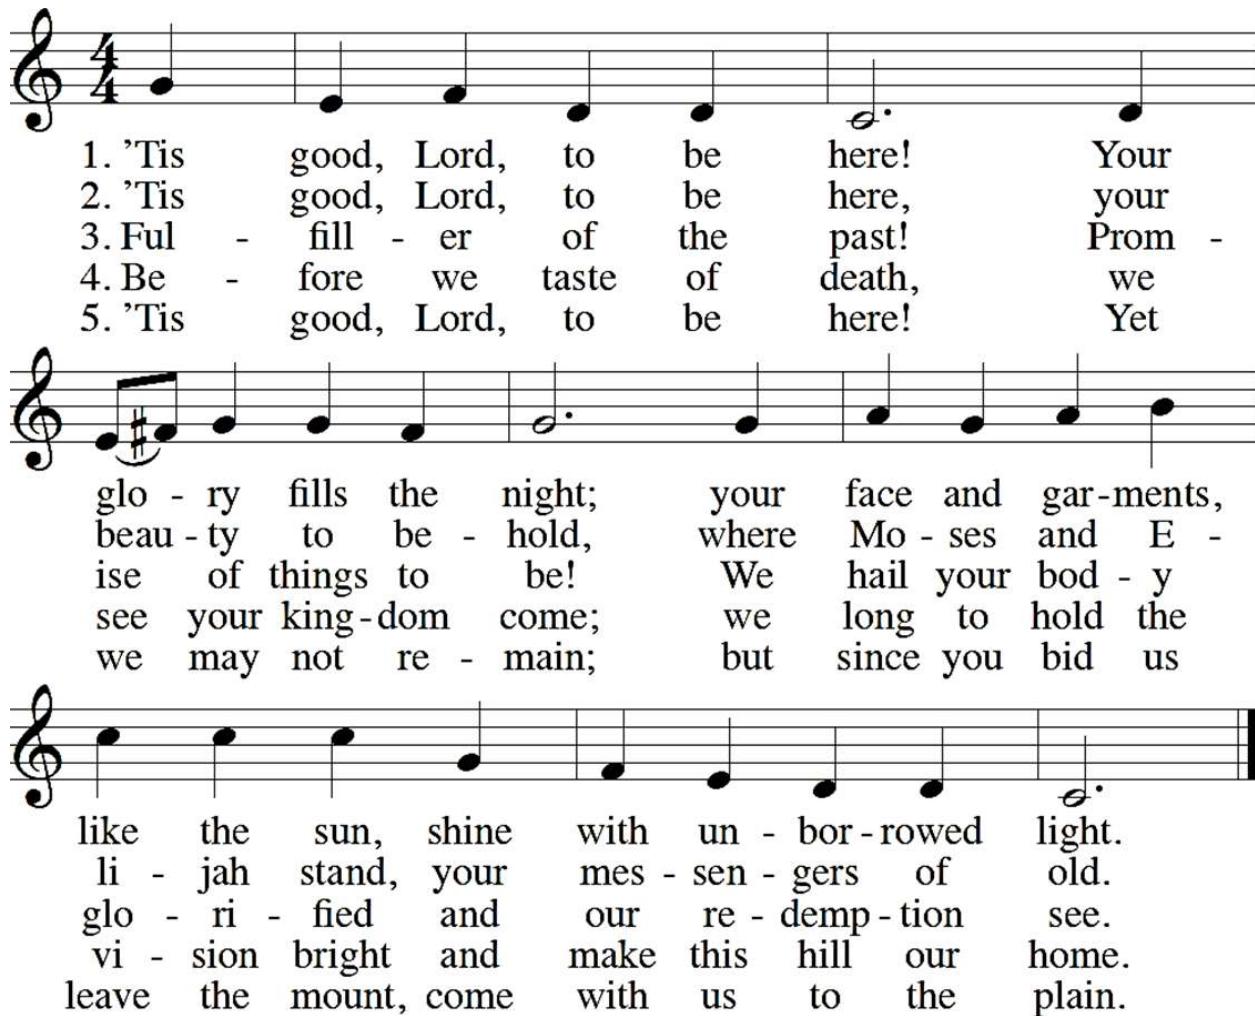

Reader The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL Matthew 17:1-9 The Rev. Steven Steinberger-Domienik

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE APOSTLES' CREED Please stand as you are able

This is an ancient baptismal creed, but using the words "I give my heart," a truer translation of the Latin word "credo" than "I believe."

I give my heart to God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I give my heart to Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried, and descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I give my heart to the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic and apostolic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. AMEN.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant May God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to our God.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues:

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the beneficiaries of creation. But we turned against you and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, God, for we have strayed from your Love.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

The musical notation consists of eight lines of music in 3/4 time, treble clef. The lyrics are as follows:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of hosts!
Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Blessed is the One who

Celebrant continues:

And so, God, we who have been redeemed by Jesus, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

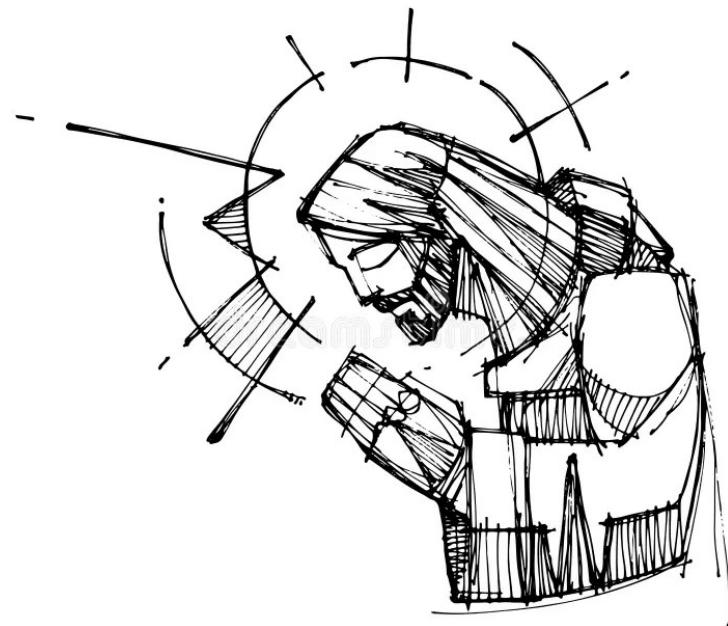

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving:

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

God of our fathers and mothers, God of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Rachel and Rebecca, Joseph, Moses, Miriam and Deborah, and God of Jesus: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, O God, through Jesus the Anointed One, our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant says:

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father in heaven, holy is your Name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. AMEN.

A Rite for the Burning of Palms

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant continues:

Beloved in Christ, while these palms grew on their trees, they drew life from the earth and gave it back to our air and they provided shelter for animals and shade for humans. Last year on Palm Sunday, they helped us offer worship to God and then adorned our homes as a reminder of Jesus' triumphal entrance into Jerusalem. Now, as these palms are reduced to ashes for us to use as we begin our Lenten pilgrimage, we pray they will serve as a sign of our mortality and our desire to change our lives as we follow Jesus through Lent. May we recognize God's love at work in us throughout this season as we prepare for the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. We ask all this in God's holy name. AMEN.

Lighting of the Fire

Celebrant continues:

Merciful God, you called us from the dust of the earth, and claimed us for Christ in the waters of Baptism. Look upon us as we prepare for the forty days of Lent by burning these palms to create the ashes that will mark us as penitents. Bless us through our Lenten journey to the waters of new birth at Easter. May our fasting be a hunger for justice; our alms a way of making peace; our prayer, the song of humble and thankful hearts. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN.

For the People of Yemen Facing Hunger

God who hears the cry of the hungry, whose Son Jesus always sided with the destitute and entered fully into human suffering through his incarnation, we lift up those who are at risk of starvation in Yemen and whom the international community have failed. We pray for an end to this food shortage and the injustice that sustains it, that all Yemenis, upheld by your providence, might be granted a sustainable future. God, you have called us to share our food with the hungry. Empower your people, by your Spirit, to loose the bonds of injustice. We pray for the nutritional services, the health facilities, and the authorities with the power to help in the region. Take away barriers to delivering aid and protect all those who labor to keep people fed. Let each of us follow the example of your Son, our Savior, and feed the hungry crowds, for the sake of his most precious name. Amen.
