ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People His mercy endures forever.

Celebrant Let us pray.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, we pray you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, and given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. AMEN.

*Today's Reader: Selia Tuten
*Easter Sunday: Scot Lau & Lydia Reed

FIRST READING Hebrews 10:16-25

Please be seated

Reader A reading from the letter of Paul to the Hebrews.

The Holy Spirit testifies saying,

“This is the covenant that I will make with them
after those days, says the Lord:

I will put my laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds,”

he also adds,

“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

RESPONSE Psalm 22:1-11 – Deus, Deus meus

¹My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?*

and are so far from my cry
and from the words of my distress?

²O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer;*

by night as well, but I find no rest.

³Yet you are the Holy One,*

enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

⁴Our forefathers put their trust in you;*

they trusted, and you delivered them.

⁵They cried out to you and were delivered;*

they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

⁶But as for me, I am a worm and no man,* scorned by all and despised by the people.

⁷All who see me laugh me to scorn;*

they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

⁸"He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him;*
let him rescue him, if he delights in him."

⁹Yet you are he who took me out of the womb,*
and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.

¹⁰I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born;*
you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

¹¹Be not far from me, for trouble is near,*
and there is none to help.

GOSPEL John 18:1-19:42

The Rev. Steven Steinberger-Domienik

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Savior according to John.

People* Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Narrator Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them,

Celebrant "Whom are you looking for?"

Narrator They answered,

All* "Jesus of Nazareth."

Narrator Jesus replied,

Celebrant "I am he."

Narrator Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground. Again he asked them,

Celebrant "Whom are you looking for?"

Narrator And they said,

All "Jesus of Nazareth."

Narrator Jesus answered,

Celebrant "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go."

Narrator This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken, "I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me." Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter,

Celebrant "Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Narrator So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him. First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people.

Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,

All "You are also one of this man's disciples, aren't you?"

Narrator He said,

All "I am not."

Narrator Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. Jesus answered, Celebrant "I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said."

Narrator When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,

All "Is that how you answer the high priest?"

Narrator Jesus answered,

Celebrant "If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?"

Narrator Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him,

All "You are also one of this man's disciples, aren't you?"

Narrator He denied it and said,

All "I am not."

Narrator One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,

All "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

Narrator Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed.

Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate went out to them and said,

All "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

Narrator They answered,

All “If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.”

Narrator Pilate said to them,

All “Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.”

Narrator The Jewish leaders replied,

All “We are not permitted to put anyone to death.”

Narrator Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

All “Are you the King of the Jews?”

Narrator Jesus answered,

Celebrant “Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?”

Narrator Pilate replied,

All “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?”

Narrator Jesus answered,

Celebrant “My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.”

Narrator Pilate asked him,

All “So you are a king?”

Narrator Jesus answered,

Celebrant “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

Narrator Pilate asked him,

All “What is truth?”

Narrator After he had said this, he went out to the Jewish leaders again and told them,

All "I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

Narrator They shouted in reply,

All "Not this man, but Barabbas!"

Narrator Now Barabbas was a bandit. Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe and striking him on the face they kept coming up to him, saying,

All "Hail, King of the Jews!"

Narrator Pilate went out again and said to them,

All "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him."

Narrator So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them,

All "Here is the man!"

Narrator When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,

All "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

Narrator Pilate said to them,

All "Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him."

Narrator The Jewish leaders answered him,

All "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God."

Narrator Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

All "Where are you from?"

Narrator But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him,

All “Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?”

Narrator Jesus answered him,

Celebrant “You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

Narrator From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jewish leaders cried out,

All “If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor.”

Narrator When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge’s bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jewish leaders:

All “Here is your King!”

Narrator They cried out,

All “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!”

Narrator Pilate asked them,

All “Shall I crucify your King?”

Narrator The chief priests answered,

All “We have no king but the emperor.”

Narrator Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

(Please stand as you are able.)

Celebrant So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." Many of the Jewish people read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the Jewish chief priests said to Pilate,

All "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'"

Narrator Pilate answered,

All "What I have written I have written."

Narrator When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another,

All "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it."

Narrator This was to fulfill what the scripture says,

All "They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots."

Narrator Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother,

Celebrant "Woman, here is your son."

Narrator Then he said to the disciple,

Celebrant "Here is your mother."

Narrator And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said,

Celebrant "I am thirsty."

Narrator A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said,

Celebrant "It is finished."

Narrator Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

(A moment of silence is observed.)

Celebrant Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the Sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out.

Narrator These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled,

All* "None of his bones shall be broken."

Narrator And again another passage of scripture says,

All* "They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

Celebrant After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jewish leaders asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body. Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jewish people.

Narrator Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. And so, because it was the Jewish day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Celebrant The Gospel of our Savior.

All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

WAY OF THE CROSS

Please see the inserted pamphlet

The Way of the Cross follows a custom widely observed by pilgrims to Jerusalem, who offer prayers at places around the city traditionally associated with the trial of Jesus and his carrying the cross to Golgotha where he is crucified and dies.
