A Protestant church in the worldwide
Anglican Communion.

The Day of Pentecost

*May 24, 2026 – LARGE-PRINT EDITION

*Before the Service — Speak quietly to God
During the Service — Let God speak to you
After the Service — Speak to one another*

LITURGICAL SEASON EXPLAINED

On this day of Pentecost, we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the first disciples and upon the Church throughout the ages. Pentecost was also the Greek name for the Hebrew Feast of Weeks, the celebration of the giving of the law to Moses on Mt. Sinai, which was kept on the fiftieth day after Passover. The disciples, therefore, were already gathered in Jerusalem for this feast when the Holy Spirit transformed them into a vibrant, evangelizing community of believers. This day is considered the birth date of the Church. The color for this day is red which symbolizes the tongues of fire.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Acts 2:1-21

Reader A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,

and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

RESPONSE Psalm 104:25-35, 37 – Benedic, anima mea

²⁵O Lord, how manifold are your works!*
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

²⁶Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number,*
creatures both small and great.

²⁷There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan,*
which you have made for the sport of it.

²⁸All of them look to you* to give them their food in due season.

²⁹You give it to them; they gather it;*
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

³⁰You hide your face, and they are terrified;*

you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

³¹You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;*

and so you renew the face of the earth.

³²May the glory of the Lord endure for ever;*

may the Lord rejoice in all his works.

³³He looks at the earth and it trembles;*

he touches the mountains and they smoke.

³⁴I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;*

I will praise my God while I have my being.

³⁵May these words of mine please him;*

I will rejoice in the Lord.

³⁷Bless the Lord, O my soul.*

Hallelujah!

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

Reader A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

No one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

GOSPEL John 20:19-23

The Rev. Steven Steinberger-Domienik

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

THE APOSTLES' CREED

Please stand as you are able

This is an ancient baptismal creed, but using the words "I give my heart," a truer translation of the Latin word "credo" than "I believe."

I give my heart to God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I give my heart to Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried, and descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I give my heart to the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic and apostolic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. AMEN.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Leader On this Pentecost Sunday, let us raise our prayers to God for the Holy Spirit sent to anoint us, saying:

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of joy in the church: that our Eastertide Alleluia may resound throughout the year.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of peace in the world: that all people, groups and nations in conflict may live in harmony.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of justice for all who are oppressed; and for the victims of prejudice, exploitation, and crime: that they may be set free.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of unity, forgiveness, and reconciliation in our country: that our diversity may make us strong and our pluralism make us rich.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of hope in the future, for the destitute, the poor, the homeless, and the hungry: that all who have lost hope may find it again.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of healing, for all those who are sick or infirmed and for all those who care for them, for those on our prayer list, and for everyone who has asked for our prayers. Are there others?

That they may receive your healing touch.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of new life: that all who have died may find eternal rest and joy with God.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of rebirth: that all who are suffering because of war, unrest, or disaster, especially in Ukraine, the Middle East, Haiti, and Sudan, may have your blessing and comfort.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

Leader For the spirit of community, for the children in our lives and in our world: grant us calm strength and patient wisdom that we may teach them to love whatever is just, true, and good.

People Send us your Spirit, O God!

CONCLUDING COLLECT

Celebrant:

Good and gracious God, send forth your Holy Spirit upon your people throughout the world. Tear down the walls that divide us, and make us one through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People* We lift them up to our God.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our God.

People* It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant continues:

God of surprises, your Holy Spirit brooded over the waters at creation and lived among your chosen people in wilderness, exile, and promised land. Your Spirit filled Mary's womb at the moment of Jesus' conception and came upon him like a dove at his baptism. When Christ died on the cross your power raised him from the tomb on the third day, and that same evening he breathed your forgiving grace on those who had deserted him. On the day of Pentecost you sent your Holy Spirit upon the fearful disciples, filling them with fire, with power, with wonder and joy, and making them your church in the world. And so we gladly thank you, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, singing this hymn of your unending praise:

Celebrant continues:

God of comfort and strength, we look to your Holy Spirit to be with us in sorrow and in contentment, in crisis and in abiding stillness. Come among us now through the power of your Spirit, that we may be transformed into your image, and that these gifts of bread and wine may become for us the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ; who at supper with his disciples took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them saying, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup. Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Drink this all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Great is the mystery of our faith.

Come, Holy Spirit; fill us with the fire of your love.

God of dreams and prophecy, send down upon us your gifts of wisdom, knowledge, and faith; of healing, discernment, and interpretation, that your church may be built up in the likeness of your Son. Let anyone who is hungry find in you the bread of life, and anyone who is thirsty find in you rivers of living water. Speak your word to all who are alone and in fear or despair, and let each one of your children hear your voice in their own language, whether that language be art or science, work or play. Sanctify your groaning creation, that your universe may breathe your breath and be filled with life anew in your Spirit.

For it is through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, with the unity of the Holy Spirit, that all glory and honor is yours, most glorious God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Celebrant says:

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father in heaven, holy is your Name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. AMEN.

Communion at Grace is Open to Everyone

Whoever you are, wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith, there is a place for you at God's table. You may choose to receive bread (gluten free wafers available upon request). You may choose to receive wine in the silver chalice or grape juice in the white and blue chalice. You may drink from either cup or intinct (dip) the bread into the chalice. You may refrain from the bread and chalice and just receive a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Please stand as you are able

Celebrant Let us pray together our post-Communion prayer.

Celebrant and People say together:

God of all, we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off you met us in your Son and brought us home. Dying and living, he declared your love, gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory. May we who share Christ's body live his risen life; we who drink his cup bring life to others; we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world. Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us, so we and all your children shall be free, and the whole earth live to praise your name; through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

BLESSING

May the strength of God sustain us; may the power of God preserve us; may the hands of God protect us; may the way of God direct us: and may the Almighty bless us this day and always, in the name of the Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. AMEN.

For Fairness in Elections and Representation

God our governor, whose gifts to us spring from infinite love, we pray for elections and systems of representation that safeguard justice, participation, and the enfranchisement of all citizens. Help us to work for fair elections, and help us ensure that everyone can engage equally in the civic life of this nation, particularly Black Americans. Grant wisdom and integrity to lawmakers, guard against practices that unfairly marginalize the voices of voters and communities, and guide us all toward truth and reliable information, especially as we approach future elections and debates over representation. We know that our common life is based on our mutual responsibility towards one another. Let love for our neighbors guide our advocacy in the public square and shape our engagement with elections. We give you thanks that our ultimate hope rests not in earthly powers, but in your eternal Kingdom. Let this hope free us from despair and guide us as we seek the good of all. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever. Amen.
