

COUCHICHIING FIRST NATION EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Post Majority Worker Couchiching First Nation

Couchiching First Nation is seeking a Post Majority Worker to join our Social Services team. Reporting to the Prevention Manager, this role is responsible for developing and implementing support plans, resource coordination, advocating for youth, crisis response, and administrative tasks while collaborating with families, guardians, educators, health care providers, and other youth supports. The Post Majority Worker will focus on fostering independence, promote self-advocacy, and facilitate access to resources in areas such as education, employment, housing, and facilitating access to resources.

The successful candidate will demonstrate strong communication skills, initiative, attention to detail, and problem solving. This is an excellent opportunity for someone who enjoys providing comprehensive assistance to youth aging out of care as they transition into adulthood.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- High School diploma or GED required.
- Prior experience working with Indigenous communities and/or organizations is preferred.
- Minimum 2 years of experience working with families, parents, or caregivers in social services, prevention, or a community support role.
- Experience in program facilitation or life skills development.
- Proficiency with Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Teams and the Internet.
- Effective oral and written communication.
- Knowledge of trauma informed practices.
- Knowledge of trauma informed and culturally safe practices.
- Valid Driver's License is required.
- Other duties as assigned.

Deadline: November 10, 2025, by 4:00PM CST.
