Manager's Report

1996 was a big year. Dolly the sheep was cloned in Scotland and the Spice Girls 'Wannabe' was released. Closer to home, the Super 12 rugby competition was launched, the All Blacks won their first world cup, and here in Christchurch, CDN Trust was born.

Dave de Roles was CDN's founding youth worker. Flanked by inspirational co-founders in Phil Stedman and Al Aitken they were soon joined by other legends like Christine Walker and Kevin Wilson. They spent late nights at home filling out funding applications and writing reports. Al infamously made the inspiring comment, "If it goes really well, CDN might last 5 years". I want to thank each of these people for their inspiration and input as well as their humility to hand on the baton to the next generation to go further.

30 years later Al is still inspiring us and many of the founding trustees and volunteers are still involved in CDN through volunteering, supporting through their organisations and businesses, donating funds, praying for the CDN volunteers and campers during camp. Many of them also have children who are taking on leadership through CDN too! You will see many of their photos throughout this book.

There simply is not enough room to thank all of the legends who have enabled CDN to thrive (and last more than 5 years) but I will mention just a few:

The people of Riccarton Community Church have formed the backbone of CDN through the decades. Many of them prefer to donate anonymously, pray constantly but quietly, cook dinner for tired teenage volunteers, and clean toilets at the end of camp. Others have served as trustees, camp leaders and programme directors. I cannot overstate the significance and impact these people have had on Ōtautahi, serving quietly without seeking recognition.

The last 30 years have been filled with fun and laughter as well as the nitty gritty of working in challenging situations. We have seen countless lives dramatically changed and families breaking a dysfunctional cycle. I totally believe that this is thanks to our Lord Jesus who loves each young person even more than we do. We pray constantly for our young people and volunteers and we see cycles of abuse and poverty broken, hurt young people become thriving leaders, and God providing the resources we need in a myriad of unexpected ways. I've heard it said that relying on God is like a crutch, but in the words of the philosopher Bear Grylls, "A crutch helps you stand, makes you stronger. In that case, sure, I need that. But especially when [God] is so much more than that."

I also want to recognise the incredible contribution of our partners who work with us to run events, contribute funding grants, nominate and sponsor campers, offer facilities at great discount and partner with us in so many other ways. People like Mike Mora, Marty & Sue Scheib, the Van't Wout family, and others have been part of the CDN mission from the start.

CDN has lasted a lot more than 5 years and we say a massive thank you to all of you for the part you have played and the way you continue to support and be a part of the CDN mission as we see young people finding their purpose, connected in their community, and reaching their potential.

Chairperson's Report

Tēnā Koutou Katoa,

In the early 2000's I embarked on my first CDN Trust Kids Camp. As an 11-year-old, off I went on the bus with other kids my age, not knowing what to expect, way out of my comfort zone, and with an attitude 'too-cool-for-school'. When I arrived at camp, I remember being greeted by "camp mum" and "camp dad" and I knew I was safe and that I was going to be okay. I am extremely grateful my mum sent me on all those camps. I know she will be grateful too, as it led me on a trajectory of wanting to make positive choices and help people. I truly believe Kids Camp's impact set me up for a life full of purpose, meaning, and hope for my future!

As a camper, I never really considered the sacrifice, finance and planning that was involved in making camps available to me and my peers. Now, as the new chair of the CDN Trust board, I am incredibly grateful for those who made Kids Camps happen and it is an honour and privilege to bring you our 30th annual report.

Last year, our former chairperson, Nathan Broughton, posed the question, "what does success actually look like?" Reflecting on that, I truly believe that success is 30 years of faithful service and the ripple effect of impact on the Rangatahi in the Waitaha region and continuing to look to the future with hope, anticipation, and full of vision.

"Titiro whakamuri, haere whakamua" – Look to the past, move forward into the future". I feel is a fitting whakatauki (Māori proverb), as we look back on not only the last year, but also the last thirty years of CDN Trust and the impact our trust has had in the community. May this be a chance for us to pause, reflect, and to share wonderful memories, to honour those who paved the way to get us to this point in time. May this also be a time to consider how CDN Trust can keep moving forward, how can we take our learnings from the past, and continue running the race set before us.

Tenei te mihi nui ki a koutou, we are grateful for our amazing staff and volunteers who continue making a difference in the lives of our Rangatahi across Ōtautahi. This year we farewelled two valuable staff members who made a huge impact both to our staff, volunteers, kids camp families, the community, and the whole of CDN Trust.

Rochelle Paul, our Whānau connections worker and HFTC manager. She added so much value to those spaces. She has gone back to full-time teaching and continues to make a difference in the community.

Flynn Wilson, has finished up in his 24-7 youth work role at Kahikatea Kirkwood Intermediate. Newly married, Flynn and his wife Catherine have moved to Dunedin, working and setting up life there.

We welcomed back Leo Black who has completed his study and stepped into a new youth work role involved in Kids Camps, Teen Adventures, BNO events and 24-7 at Kahikatea Kirkwood intermediate. He is already making a huge impact to our team and our rangatahi in the work he does.

Thank you all of you for your amazing contributions over the past year, as well as the last 30 years. You have contributed to a vision so big that we couldn't have achieved on our own. Your support has allowed us to make a massive difference in the lives of young people, and for that we are truly grateful.

Ngā Mihi Nui,

Impact of a leader's generosity!

For Dani Boxall, childhood was often a whirlwind of moving house, some traumatic experiences and navigating a “rough upbringing” with her single mother. When she arrived in Christchurch at age eight, money was tight, and the coins scraped from the car's glove box were sometimes all they had for treats. They didn't have much support around them, but Dani's school nominated her for CDN Kids Camp.

Though Dani was initially nervous and scared because she had never been to camp before, those feelings quickly evaporated. She was immediately “swept up” by amazing leaders and exciting activities that left no time to be sad or homesick.

“I think just the experience of trying so many new things and having opportunities that I wouldn't normally have was just really exciting and almost like a dream,” says Dani.

The highlights were as simple as they were profound. She fondly remembers the thrill of the go-karts and the “amazing” water slide. Perhaps most exciting of all was the food; having a delicious dinner followed by dessert every single night was a massive treat that rarely happened in her own house. Beyond the fun, Dani felt a deep sense of being “safe and loved” by people who were essentially strangers to her.

Dani fondly remembers particular examples of generosity and kindness some of the leaders showed in wee moments during camp where they saw Dani or other campers having a moment of doubt or struggle. Dani recounts, “Just seeing that [from those leaders] and being around that, it's sort of something that I've taken into my adulthood and just wanting to help children feel good about themselves.”

Today, Dani does exactly that as her journey has come full circle. She now works for Youth Alive Trust, helping children navigate mental health challenges and adverse experiences. She sees the stress that modern life and the cost-of-living place on families today, often leaving children feeling like they shouldn't ask for too much. Because of her own experience, she feels honoured to be the person nominating a new generation of kids for camp, ensuring they get the same chance to feel safe, happy, and loved.

“Christian camping is a vital contributor to the development of the nation’s youth... and such camps had a lifelong influence on me.”

Andrew Becroft, Children’s Commissioner, 2016

Programmes

CDN Trust is about young people and their families. Our vision is for every young person to know their purpose, be connected in their community, and reaching their potential.

PURPOSE

Our camps and programmes foster close relationships, personal competencies, self-discipline, strong families, school spirit, thinking skills, positive peer relationships, cultural pride and awareness in young people. Alongside great role models in our youth workers and volunteers, young people explore their purpose and gain confidence in life.

CONNECTION

Through our Big Night Out events and connection work, young people and their families get connected in their local communities to sports clubs, support services, great people and youth groups where they find belonging and ongoing support.

POTENTIAL

Through access to support such as our HFTC counselling fund and programmes like our leadership development camps, our young people are empowered to reach their potential and, in turn, serve their communities!

Many of our activities are based in the Riccarton and Hornby areas while other programmes such as Kids Camps, Teen Adventure Camps and Big Night Out have city-wide impact. We do this through great people, good relationships, fun experiences and good values offered through a combination of event-based programmes, presence-based youth work and work with individuals and families through counselling and mentoring.

CDN staff operate from three bases: our main shared office with Riccarton Community Church, the Wycola Youth Centre in Hornby and alongside Queenspark Community Trust in Parklands. Collaboration with other groups is an important feature of virtually all of our programmes and we often mobilize to work closely with other groups throughout the city. We also work alongside other organisations throughout New Zealand – through all these partnerships we are able to be a catalyst for even greater impact!

Stories and quotes are from young people involved in CDN programmes. Names and identifying information have been changed in some cases for the privacy of our tamariki and their whānau.

Big Night Out

We run our BNO (Big Night Out) events in partnership with local youth groups throughout Christchurch. These events are for both the young people who already attend the youth group as well as many other young people from that suburb. We make a special invitation to local young people who have come on Kids Camps and Teen Adventure Camps – giving them an opportunity to make local connections!

We started BNO events in Hornby over 20 years ago, featuring Red Bull, Cookie Time and a QE2 pool takeover. Our BNO events now span throughout Christchurch and range from Laserstrike to Ninja Valley and pizza feasts!

Teen Adventures

Teen Adventures are all different! From pool parties or high ropes courses to weekend camps at Hanmer Springs or Koukourarata marae each event brings a special flavour. Over the last 30 years, highlights have included sleeping in fridge boxes, jet boating, kayaking, fingernail painting, cooking, and campfire stories.

Our volunteers are still what make each camp and event really special as they come to spend time with the young people, listening to their stories and getting to know what ‘makes them tick’. Laughing, crying and screaming alongside campers while zooming down a zip line, cooking up the nachos or singing waiata around the campfire are the real highlights of a camp!

She came back saying that she wanted to be a camp leader in the future which is amazing. She used to be so shy and lacking in confidence.”

Youth Centres

Since 2008, the Hornby Youth Hangout has been a 'home away from home' where young people pop in for a game of air hockey or to share a scoop of chips with some friends and our youth workers. These casual connections are incredibly important as we get to have chats about everything from how school is going to struggles at home or mental health – all in a relaxed setting where playing Jenga or drawing pictures on the whiteboard helps make for great conversations! We partner with the Hope Community Youth workers in this programme.

Similarly, the Parklands Youth Centre is a collaboration led by Queenspark Community Trust, helping young people feel connected. The freshly cooked pikelets and other treats often on offer are a highlight alongside playing table tennis or basketball. Jasper, Sanae and the volunteers also help young people connect with community days and sports events.

Having built great relationships over food and games, the youth workers are also able to step into deeper conversations, help with situations that spill over from school and offer a bit of advice or advocacy.

School-Based Youth Work

Over the decades, our school-based youth workers have connected with thousands of students through mentoring, school camps, running lunchtime games and sports teams and supporting students and school staff.

Donna, Leo & JC, our Kirkwood team, are legendary for 'Oscar & Lucinda Challenges', run fabulous lunchtime games like gaga dodgeball and step into the gaps to help out on school camps and coach basketball and volleyball teams.

We partner with Hope Community Youth for youth work at Hornby High School. The team (Vicky, Ben, Emma) help coach and manage sports teams, assist on school camps and trips throughout the South Island, and run lunchtime activities like 9-square-in-the-air. Our youth workers also support individual students in all sorts of ways, from comforting a student having a rough day or dealing with grief through to helping a young person find safe accommodation.

KIDS CAMP

“Rawiri came back from camp a different child! We were surprised with how much more interactive he was. He has barely played on any technology since he’s been back and has reduced the amount of disrespect and swearing he used to do towards us and his siblings. Definitely a huge success from us!”

Camper’s caregiver

Kids Camps

Over 6,300 kids have been a part of CDN Kids Camps over the last 30 years. These camps run at Woodend Christian Camp every school holidays for up to 75 intermediate age young people. Our campers are nominated by social workers, teachers, and community workers for reasons ranging from social anxiety or family breakdown to needing some positive role models.

It's not just about the great activities or yummy food at camp either! If you ask a Kids Camper what they remember, they always talk about their leaders and the friends they made. We have about 30 volunteers each camp who are great role models, spending time chatting with campers over meals or playing games of spotlight and capture the flag.

Areas Parents Saw Change:

Leadership Development

We often see young people growing through serving others and working alongside other, more experienced, leaders. Youth pastors frequently rave to us about how serving on CDN camps helps their young people gain leadership skills, empathy for others and enthusiasm to learn more.

Alongside our Kids Camps we run a junior leadership development programme called Leaders in Training (LiT) for up-n-coming young leaders. Many are former Kids Campers who want to train up to become a camp leader! We have up to ten LiTers on each camp. They are looked after by a senior volunteer or staff member and get extra training as well as various age-appropriate roles helping throughout camp.

We also run a dedicated leadership development camp annually in collaboration with some of our other camping partners, incorporating a wide range of practical training.

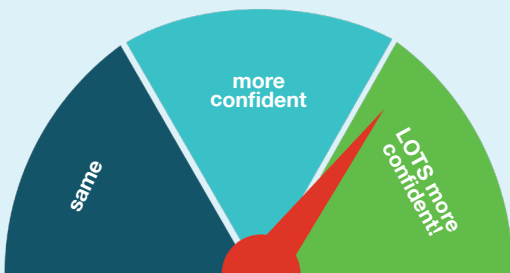

“Kids Camp has made me more aware of the reality of poverty and other disprivilege in our community.”

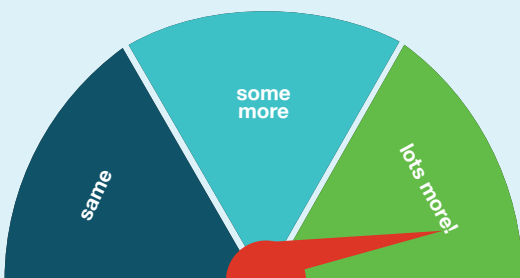

“Leading on camp has made me a better person in general, even just leading my sister at home”

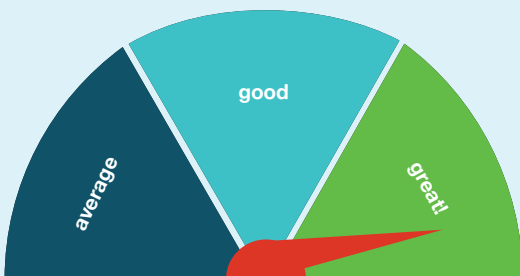

How much volunteers feel CDN leadership training helps them:

Honestly her whole demeanour and outlook on life has changed since she went on Kids Camp, found the youth group and friends there. She was quite a different kid before all that so insecure and anxious, sad and angry. Thanks for everything you all have done for her.

Esme’s mum has seen a massive change in her life, as a Kids Camper who is now a camp LiT volunteer.

Hope for the Children

Hope for the Children

This year our Hope for the Children (HFTC) counselling fund has helped 54 children and young people access the counselling support they need. We have ten approved counsellors throughout Canterbury who access our HFTC funding in order to give equitable access to counselling for 5–18-year-olds.

Utilizing a variety of methods, including play-therapy with Lego and drawing, young people find our counsellors friendly and approachable. Tamariki are able to process their thoughts and feelings and discover a new emotional toolbox!

HFTC is funded primarily by individuals' donations, social enterprise income from Upstream, and sales of tea-cup birdfeeders made by the Rendle family of Nelson. Over 1,100 counselling sessions have been enabled through the sale of these birdfeeders!

Solo Mum and Big Emotions

For Natalie, it was very important for her to feel listened to, like someone was on her side and really 'saw' her. Through HFTC subsidised counselling she was able to pick up useful strategies to deal with her 'big emotions'. I could see her using these in her day-to-day life. The difference that they made to how she felt about herself and how she was able to interact with other people, was tremendous.

Natalie now has a better relationship with her peers, a more respectful attitude towards her teachers and she is better able to communicate how she is feeling in a constructive way. This has given her a much-needed boost to her self-esteem. I cannot over-state what a difference that this has made for her.

As a solo mum, I do my best to provide for my child, but the cost of the number of counselling sessions that Natalie needed to make this difference, would have been prohibitive. Having access to funding meant that she had the number of sessions that she needed, not just the number of sessions that I could afford. This means that she was actually able to 'see through' the healing that was needed. *names changed

Children's Wellbeing

Our Faith Commitment

Adding Life to Life!

Right from our start in 1996 we have been about connection with young people wherever they're at and giving them great role models to journey with. We connect with a wide variety of young people. Some students are struggling at school, others need a holiday from family stresses, many need solid role models, some need the ability to connect with new friends while others need links to careers, study options or local youth groups. Our team of youth workers, counsellors and volunteers come alongside them, providing support and encouragement as well as fantastic experiences through our camps and programmes.

We are a Christian organisation

As a Christian organisation, we are motivated by a desire to serve our community. We see Christian values and ideals as an essential part of who we are and what we do. We also want our donors and the families we connect with to know who we are and what, if any, spiritual content might be on programmes we offer.

We work with churches

Through this we have a strong volunteer base and access to a wide range of facilities and equipment. Our church links give us quality people and support through reduced overheads. All CDN programmes and activities are services to the community for people in the community. No funding given to CDN is spent on church programmes for church members.

We are positive and holistic

We cater to the intellectual, social, physical and spiritual areas of life. We promote good morals and good character. We see ourselves as giving young people a spiritual option and an introduction to spiritual things. We aim to give young people enough information to be able to make up their own minds. For young people wanting to go further, we are able to refer them to many other groups. For those who don't, we aim to do all we can to help them in the other areas of life.

We adhere to school boundaries

We adhere strictly to boundaries set by schools. This typically means that our school-based youth workers are required to seek prior approval before distributing promotional material, do not evangelise within school settings, and we make sure young people and parents or caregivers are informed about any spiritual content in out-of-school programmes we may promote.

We are informative & transparent

Our spiritual advisory system gives information and transparency to young people, parents and caregivers, teachers, donors and funders. The ratings describe the likely levels of spiritual content present in our programmes and activities. People are therefore able to make informed choices about participation and support. Spiritual Level ratings are displayed on flyers and other promotional material.

From troubled kid to camp leader

Quinn describes himself as a “troubled kid” growing up, who was often angry and prone to getting into fights. His life took a significant turn when a youth worker at Kirkwood Intermediate nominated him to attend a CDN Kids Camp. Though he initially felt worried about coming to camp where he knew almost no one, he was excited about the activities like archery, air rifles, and forest games.

Once at camp, the thing that stood out most to Quinn was how kind and ready to listen the leaders were. He has a deep respect for volunteers like Tom Malcolm and Matthew Osborne, whose kindness inspired him to stop being self-centred and start thinking about the needs of others. “I really looked up to Tom because he was a nice person who was always ready to listen and answer any questions we had.” says Quinn.

Quinn’s mother noticed a dramatic shift in his life, remarking how happy she was that he had chosen a much more thoughtful “path” in life because of these experiences. Quinn feels the same way. “I am happy with the path I am on now. I don’t even want to think about what my life would have been like if I hadn’t gone to Kids Camp... I didn’t even know youth group existed until they mentioned it at camp.”

After camp and getting involved in a local youth group, Quinn has flourished, stepping up into leadership roles through being an LiT at Kids Camp, a cabin leader and volunteering at BNO events and a youth group. Quinn says he likes being able to “pay it forward” to other children.

For Quinn, his journey from Kids Camp has involved lasting connections and friendships he has built as well as finding a faith that is foundational for him. “The message of John 3:16 really stuck with me.” Quinn says, “I hadn’t heard often that God loved the world so much He gave His only Son for us. I thought that was really cool.” Quinn is incredibly grateful to the donors who funded his camps and the cabin leaders and mentors who have come alongside him, noting that their generosity changed his entire life path.

“I don’t even want to think about what my life would have been like if I hadn’t gone to Kids Camp!”

Entity's Purpose or Mission

Community Development Network Trust (CDN Trust) works with young people and their families. Our school-based activities and after-school programmes are based primarily in the Riccarton, Sockburn and Hornby areas, while our Kids Camps, Teen Adventure Camps and Big Night Out events have city-wide impact. We foster thinking skills, close relationships, personal competencies, stress tolerance, self-discipline, family, school, peers and culture in young people. We do this through good people, good relationships, good experiences and good values offered through a combination of event based programmes, presence-based youth work and individual case work. Collaboration with other groups is an important feature of many of our programmes. Adding Life to Life: We connect with a wide variety of young people and families. CDN is all about connecting with young people wherever they're at and giving them great role models to journey with! As a Christian organisation, we are motivated by a desire to serve our community. We see Christian values and ideals as an essential part of who we are and what we do. CDN works with churches to access a strong volunteer base. All CDN programmes and activities are services to the community for people in the community. No funding given to CDN is spent on church programmes for church members. CDN programmes and activities are positive and holistic. We try to cater to the intellectual, social, physical and spiritual areas of life. We promote good morals and good character. We see ourselves as giving young people a spiritual option and an introduction to spiritual things. We aim to give young people enough information to be able to make up their own minds. - The service performance for the year ended DD Month 2025 in that the service performance information is appropriate and meaningful and prepared in accordance with the Trust's measurement bases or evaluation methods in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard) issued by the New Zealand Accounting Standards Board.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the financial statements in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (New Zealand) (ISAs (NZ)), and the audit of the service performance information and entity information in accordance with the ISAs (NZ) and New Zealand Auditing Standard NZ AS 1 (Revised) The Audit of Service Performance Information. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Performance Report section of our report. We are independent of the Trust in accordance with Professional and Ethical Standard 1 International Code of Ethics for Assurance Practitioners (including International Independence Standards) (New Zealand) issued by the New Zealand Auditing and Assurance Standards Board, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other than in our capacity as auditor, we have no relationship with, or interests in, the Trust.

Other Matter

The performance report (financial statements only) of Community Development Network Trust for the year ended 31 December 2024 were audited by another auditor who expressed an unmodified opinion on 11 April 2025.

Trustees' Responsibilities for the Performance Report

The Trustees are responsible on behalf of the Trust for:

- The preparation, and fair presentation of the performance report in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard);
- The selection of elements/aspects of service performance, performance measures and/or descriptions and measurement bases or evaluation methods that present service performance information that is appropriate and meaningful in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard);
- The preparation and fair presentation of service performance information in accordance with the Trust's measurement bases or evaluation methods, in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard);
- The overall presentation, structure and content of the service performance information in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard); and
- Such internal control as the Trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of a performance report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the performance report, the Trustees are responsible for assessing the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting, unless the Trustees either intend to liquidate the Trust or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Performance Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the performance report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and NZ AS 1 (Revised) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate or collectively, they could reasonably be expected to influence the decisions of users taken on the basis of this performance report.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (NZ) and NZ AS 1 (Revised), we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the performance report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit of the performance report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management and the Trustees.
- Obtain an understanding of the process applied by the Trust to select its elements/aspects of service performance, performance measures and/or descriptions and the measurement bases or evaluation methods.
- Evaluate whether the selection of elements/aspects of service performance, performance measures and/or descriptions and measurement bases or evaluation methods present an appropriate and meaningful assessment of the Trust's service performance in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard).
- Evaluate whether the service performance information is prepared in accordance with the Trust's measurement bases or evaluation methods, in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard).
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the use of the going concern basis of accounting by the Trustees and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our report to the related disclosures in the performance report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Trust to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure, and content of the performance report and whether the performance report represents the underlying transactions and events, and elements/aspects of service performance in accordance with the Reporting Requirements for Tier 3 Not-for-Profit Entities (Tier 3 (NFP) Standard), in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the Trustees regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during the audit.

CDN Volunteers

Liv Paul

Volunteer of the Year

Liv is a smiling superstar as a cabin leader or programme director at Kids Camp as well as helping out at BNO and school fun-day events. Liv has been involved in CDN programmes for 5 years and is equally at ease organising the programme for a camp, playing virtually any sport with a group of kids, or having a one-on-one chat with a child who needs encouragement.

Tamra Falconer

Legendary Volunteer

Tamra has been a CDN legend for nearly 25 years! She has served in roles ranging from cabin leader at Kids Camp, to camp mum encouraging the volunteers as well as the leaders. More recently she has been involved in the background through post-camp clean up and cooking up a massive delicious feed with her husband Andrew for the Kids Camp volunteers' dinner. Tamra's kids are now involved as Kids Camp leaders too!

Thank You!

Our volunteers invest a massive amount of time in our young people and serve with incredible passion. We say a huge THANK YOU to all the volunteers who help on camps, clean up after events, support our admin team, serve in governance roles, cook yummy food for dozens of very hungry teenagers and heaps more! You are very much appreciated!

In the year ended 31 December 2025 our volunteers gave an estimated 8,877 hours valued at $260,769.

Our experienced staff combined with an incredibly dedicated team of volunteers are a powerful combination for the young people we work with.
