

AUTHENTIC & ROOTED

Adena Orchard & Vine is a family-run & community-centered events venue on a rare piece of land in the heart of the Catskills.

Adena represents deep roots, natural beauty, and organic connection. Every wedding we host is a reflection of our core values combined with the remarkable individuals who book with us. Your unique visions, cultures, personalities, traditions, and stories are woven into our foundation of:

INCLUSIVITY & WELCOMING

We celebrate your humanity! We are approachable, genuine, and welcome you and your community - with joyful curiosity! - exactly as you are.

TRANSPARENCY & AUTHENTICITY

We are honest, straightforward, and trustworthy. We create space where you and your community can be your whole, authentic selves.

COMMUNITY & FAMILY

We are family-owned, and we define family expansively. You are putting down roots in our orchard and we welcome you to watch them grow & enjoy their fruits.

CREATIVITY

We are artists and humanitarians, and we recognize the creativity in you! We are responsive to your impulses, strive to say “yes!” to them, and use our expertise & 20+ years of events experience to anchor you in what’s most important.

We can't wait to get to know you.

150 Year Old Mortise & Tenon Barns

Beams of sunlight still sparkle through the cracks in the original wood siding, and our respectful renovation honors this history while creating a modern space where black-ties and boots are equally comfortable.

Built into a gently sloping hill, each level of the two-story Kirkman Barn has large double doors onto ground level, combining indoor comfort with easy access and open air views.

Atop a Mountain in the Heart of Catskill State Park

Expansive manicured lawns, 360 degree views, massive rocks, old fruit trees, and a stream-fed pond are all connected by intimate walking paths and bridges.

The tranquility of nature - secret swimming holes, hiking trails, and a canopy of stars - envelopes you, while plenty of bars, 5 star restaurants, golf courses, creature comforts, and charming shops, are just a stones throw away.

The Gift of Time

You are our sole focus. We host one wedding per weekend, and only a handful of events each year, allowing you the time to take a deep breath and enjoy yourself, and allowing us to offer you our undivided attention and dedication.

We are your advocates, cheerleaders, and helpful guides throughout your planning process.

A group of approximately 20 people, including men, women, and children, are standing in a field of tall, green grass. They are dressed in casual summer attire, such as t-shirts, blouses, and hats. In the background, there is a dense forest of tall, green trees under a blue sky with some clouds. The text "REAL ADENA WEDDINGS" is overlaid in a dark, stylized font across the lower middle of the image.

REAL ADENA WEDDINGS

ANNA + ADRIANA

"Thank you for the most magical experience of our lives. The environment you provide is so warm and welcoming. We felt really at home and supported throughout our entire process. We truly feel like your entire family has gone above and beyond to make our day special."

CRYSTAL + PETER

"From the moment we took a tour, my partner and I knew this was where we wanted to get married! We canceled all our future tours because we were so sure and we never had any regrets."

A bride and groom walking down a path at a wedding ceremony. The bride is wearing a white dress and holding a large bouquet of flowers. The groom is wearing a white shirt and a white vest. They are surrounded by guests and confetti is falling around them.

JACKIE + DESMOND

Jackie and I knew from the get-go that we would be having a large, bohemian, non-traditional, DIY wedding, and Adena fully truly wholly delivered. From the GORGEOUS setting deep in the Catskills, to the STUNNING authentic barn that they've put so much work into restoring, our wedding would not have been anywhere near as magical or perfect had Adena not hosted it.

RENEE + SCOTT

Hi! It's us! We got married at Adena Orchard & Vine in 2022. It was the best day of our lives. Little did we know how completely that day would shape our path - now we own and operate this magical place, together with our families.

JOIN OUR ORCHARD

The deeper the roots the sweeter the fruit.

At the end of your weekend, we'll gift you an apple, cherry, or pear tree to plant in our growing orchard with your closest family and friends.

You're always welcome back to visit your tree, and we host an annual Memorial Day BBQ with members of the Adena community.

Join us.
