

THE GUILD OF THE MOST SACRED HEART AND ST JUDE PARISH

PRESENT:

2025 SUMMER MUSIC FESTIVAL

PERFORMERS INCLUDE:

Theresa Renna

Originally from Alabama, Theresa Renna graduated from Franciscan University in Theology and Music Ministry. Since graduation she has performed as an original and cover song artist, both individually and with bands, for a variety of settings. She was honored to be chosen to share her original song Forever Home at SEEK 2024, and loves working in music ministry for parishes, retreats, and weddings. She is so grateful to be coming to our parish to share her original music with you all this month.

Emma Fradd

Emma had her first tangible experience of God when she was 18 years old, after spending 5 years calling herself an Atheist. Embracing her Catholic faith, she has lived in 4 different countries working in youth and music ministry for over 10 years. A game changer for her personal faith life was serving 2 mission years with NET Ministries, where she grew closer to God and understood more about what a personal relationship with Jesus looks like. Straying from the typical 'praise and worship' sound most Catholics tend to embody when creating music, Emma focuses on percussive guitar and fast fingerpicking which are the backbone of her music.

Emma is touring the US this fall with the release of her fifth studio album “I Can Read Minds” featuring the single ‘Firing range’ which highlights her diverse gift for songwriting. Her music has taken her on multiple tours across Canada, New Zealand as a solo artist, England, with her band Interior Castle, and many tours across Australia as a solo artist and in her dance-pop band Heaps Good Friends. Usually shredding with the full band, Emma returns to the stage this fall playing solo, allowing her to share her heart through her songs and wow-ing listeners with her ballistic guitar skills in a more intimate setting.

Joe Zambon

Joe Zambon is an acoustic singer-songwriter whose music invites listeners into a deeper encounter with God through honest storytelling and soulful melodies. Originally from Ontario, Canada, Joe now lives in Frederick, Maryland with his wife and three children. He continues to share his gift through live performances, retreats, and intimate living-room shows, creating spaces where music becomes a bridge to the sacred.
