Max H. Beall

mbeall@lang.law

Max Beall is a former prosecutor and trial attorney with the Maricopa County Attorney's Office, where he gained valuable experience in case evaluation, legal analysis, and the fair application of justice.

He earned his law degree at the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University. During law school, he helped launch and served at the Center for Constitutional Design, an experience that strengthened his interest in constitutional law and the structure of government.

Outside of his professional work, Max enjoys running and spending time outdoors with his wife. He has a strong interest in U.S. history, particularly Supreme Court history, and is a member of the Phoenix Symphony Chorus.
