Land Acknowledgement

Families First Society acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 land; the traditional, ancestral and unceded territory of the Cree, Blackfoot, Nêhiyaw, Dene, Anishinaabe, Nakota Sioux, Metis, and Niitsitapi peoples, whose histories, languages, cultures and traditions continue to influence our vibrant community. As the original caretakers, Indigenous peoples welcomed newcomers with hospitality and generosity, seeking to walk well with one another.

We honour the courage and strength of Indigenous people, as well as their remarkable endurance in the face of governments and systems that have acted to marginalize, exclude and extinguish their culture and legacy.

We commit to fostering a space where all people feel safe, valued, heard and empowered. We commit to hear truth and to the process of reconciliation.

We commit to the struggle against the systems of oppression that have impacted the Indigenous peoples of this land, and that have denied their rights of self-determination. We seek to build healthy relationships that have a foundation of love and respect, and be steadfast in our efforts to prevent violence against Indigenous women and girls. We will strive to build a future that is rooted in respect, inclusion and understanding as we acknowledge the past and the ongoing journey of reconciliation.

Message from the Board of Directors

To Our Village from the Families First Board of Directors

Reflecting on the year from April 2024 to March of 2025, changes and adjustments were impactful on how Families First continues to serve families and individuals in Fort Saskatchewan and Sturgeon Region.

We had significant changes in leadership as Darryl Burry assumed the role of executive director in June 2024 after the departure of Jaqueline Dagneau. Other long-term staff departures due to retirements and career moves resulted in a restructuring of the leadership guiding and managing the staff providing programs, supports and services.

As a board, we identify the strategic direction and provide oversight of how Families First is meeting the needs of the community. The Board recently updated our society Bylaws, implementing a membership avenue and introducing term limits on Executive and Board members.

Under the direction of Darryl, the staff teams have refocused on the core needs and values that have long been the foundation of Families First. The Board is grateful for everything the staff do; without their dedication, Families First could not serve individual, children, youth and families in the communities as we do.

The Board is also keenly aware of the need to support positive relationships with our volunteers, funders, donors and sponsors. We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge your participation in Our Village through volunteering, donating items or funds, partnering with us on projects or with families, approval of grants, joining us in our events, activities and programs, or making positive referrals to our programs. We are so fortunate that you are part of Our Village.

With gratitude,

Karen Sliwkanich, Board Chair
On behalf of the Families First Society
Board of Directors

Message from the Executive Director

To Our Village,

Since 1998, the Fort Saskatchewan Families First Society has been providing help and hope to the residents of Fort Saskatchewan and the Sturgeon Region. What began as a focus on providing prevention and early intervention care and support for families with young children, has grown into the Families First of today, which provides critical supports for the Region. This has occurred while living out the mission which calls us to help create a resilient and healthy community for tomorrow through improving the lives of children, youth and families today.

Over this past year, we have supported over 900 households by way of our early childhood development play programs, in-home supports, parent/caregiver education classes, family violence prevention programs, system navigation, mental health supports, and through the Holiday toy (Cram-the-Van) and winter coat programs. Through each of these programs and services our vision remains the same, which is for strong, safe and healthy future generations.

This past year, we have developed and launched a new website; engaged a new client-management system; created Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Decolonization (DEID), Policy and Social committees; restructured our leadership team; shifted spaces within the building to better support for our ever-changing operations; upgraded our Dow Discovery and outdoor spaces (thanks to the United Way Engineering Day of Caring); and so much more.

Throughout the pages of this report, you will be able to capture a glimpse of the work that has taken place this past year. This has only been possible thanks to the incredible team here at Families First who have journeyed with each client through a trauma-informed, individualized and compassionate approach.

I also want to acknowledge our wonderful team of volunteers who have provided critical support to our operations, from meal preparation, facility/product organization, grounds keeping and so much more. In addition, our donors enable us to continue to do the work that we do on a daily basis – we could not do what we do with your support!

To our Board of Directors, I would like to thank-you for your on-going support, encouragement and direction. Your dedication to Families First is extraordinary and is deeply appreciated.

Finally, I would like to thank-you, our Village, for taking the time to learn more about Families First and for your support of our operations here in Fort Saskatchewan and the Sturgeon Region.

Sincerely,

Darryl Burry
Executive Director

Programs & Services

Home Visitation

The Home Visitation program provides targeted, in-home support for families with children aged 0–6 years. Our staff travel throughout the region to meet families where they are—literally and emotionally—partnering with them to set and achieve personalized family goals. Central to our approach is fostering healthy, secure relationships between caregivers and their children. Home Visitors offer education, encouragement, and practical tools to support positive parent-child attachment and family well-being. The program incorporates developmental screenings to ensure children are meeting key milestones, and assessments to identify and address concerns related to mental health or family violence.

Integrated within this program is Health For Two, a prenatal support program meant to guide and empower expecting caregivers. Through education, referrals, and meaningful connections, we help lay the foundation for a healthy pregnancy and early parenting journey. Above all, our Home Visitors create a safe, non-judgmental space where caregivers can share their challenges and receive direct support, resources, and referrals to navigate life's complexities.

FAMILY VIOLENCE PREVENTION PROGRAM

The Family Violence Prevention Program (FVPP) provides long-term support to individuals impacted by domestic violence in Fort Saskatchewan, the Sturgeon Region and Lamont area. The program includes both individual and group supports, risk assessments, safety planning, education, advocacy, court accompaniment and referrals to other community resources.

There were 191 individuals who connected with the FVPP this past year – either for themselves or for a loved one.

The FVPP provided 130 referrals to partner agencies this past year.

The FVPP program conducted an intake and provide direct one-on-one support to 41 individuals this past year with 10 individuals participating in one of the support groups.

The Family Violence Prevention Working Group members (Fort Saskatchewan RCMP, Fort Saskatchewan FCSS, Central Alberta Regional Victims Serving Society, Saffron Sexual Assault Centre, Sturgeon FCS, Strathcona FCS, and A Safe Place) not only make themselves available for individual consult as needed, but collectively meet every month to network, discuss family violence awareness initiatives and discuss the trends and barriers impacting families in our communities. That's over 30 hours of partner collaboration and relationship building. We extend sincere gratitude to our Family Violence Prevention Working Group members.

Programs & Services

FAMILY VIOLENCE PREVENTION PROGRAM

D.A.W.N.

Our weekly DAWN support group (Discovery, Affirmation, Wellness, New Beginnings) is for women experiencing domestic violence and provides education, emotional literacy, support, goal planning and peer support. Some of the foundational topics covered through the program include boundaries, healthy relationships, self-compassion, self-esteem, personal vision, values and gratitude. The information provided, along with the shared knowledge gained from the lived experience of the participants and the facilitators empower the participants to begin transitioning into a life free from abuse.

Senior's Circle

This bi-weekly support group follows the same curriculum as the DAWN program but with a focus on women in the later stages of life. An identifiable difference between Senior's Circle and DAWN surrounds the themes of loneliness and building connections, which looks different following the child-bearing years of life.

Healing Homes

Healing Homes are two second-stage housing units for families rebuilding following domestic violence. Residents can stay in the unit for up to two (2) years while receiving wrap-around support from the FVPP.

Healing Homes is designed to be a safe sanctuary where the residents can focus on their healing journey, in a safe and undisclosed location, where all the necessities have been provided for the residents.

Programs & Services

STEADFAST CONNECTOR

The Steadfast Connector provides trauma-informed support to the residents of Fort Saskatchewan experiencing complex and urgent needs. Many of the individuals accessing this service present with multiple high-priority challenges (housing, employment, income support, mental health support, etc.) and require assistance navigating systems and completing complex forms (i.e. AISH, Income Support, Alberta Works, etc.). Appointments are available during business hours, and after-hours are available by appointment when needed.

Individuals supported this year: 271

Success Stories:

A youth, estranged from his mother, but living with his grandmother, did not have access to his birth certificate or photographs. The youth needed these documents to finalize his school funding. The Steadfast Connector supported the youth in completing an emergency fund application. This connection allowed the individual to gain access to necessary documents which led to his school funding being approved.

A young man needed support with his AISH appeal. The Steadfast Connector connected with the individual, reviewed his AISH application as well as the denial letter. The AISH decision was ultimately overturned by the board due to the strength of the client and the advocacy of the Steadfast Connector. The young man was granted regular payments and also received eight (8) months of retroactive pay.

A grandmother came to Families First to get information on how to become the guardian of her grandchild following the passing of her daughter. The Steadfast Connector supported the grandmother to complete a Parent-Guardianship order through the courts (as an emergency bypass family court docket). The grandmother was able to gain guardianship of the minor.
