

Women on a journey

sharing our stories

Lord Jesus,

As Catholic women, we long and desire to share our lives, to tell our stories and to walk this journey with you.

Help us to open our hearts to those in need.

Guide us to know when to speak.

Inspire us to invite others to walk this journey with you.

Be with us as we, the NCCW, pause to give you thanks:

For all that you do for us,

For your grace,

For your love,

And for always being there for us.

Your mother, Mary, is a woman who held all things within her heart,

Help us to embrace your presence and to hold everything within your heart.

May we remain faithful witnesses to sharing our stories and walking this journey with you.

We are grateful for your gift of grace and we pray for your continued guidance.

Amen
