

Athens United Soccer Association Player Code of Conduct

As a soccer player, member and representative of Athens United Soccer Association (AUSA), I agree to the following Player Code of Conduct:

- I will have fun and be fair at all times I am at a home or away soccer field for practice, game or any club event.
- I will obey the laws of FIFA and rules of Georgia Soccer and not resort to any violence due to disagreements.
- I will respect my coaches, officials, parents and all players regardless of race, religion, gender, ethnicity or athletic ability.
 - I will refrain from criticizing my coach, manager, teammates, parents, opponents or any game official and will show respect to all.
- I will ONLY use kind words and gestures towards coaches, teammates, opposing players, game officials and spectators. Talking back to coaches or any official is not an acceptable behavior. I understand that profanity towards coaches, teammates, opposing players, referees or spectators is NOT allowed.
- I will always try my best.
- I will work for the good of my team.
- I will learn to accept the decisions of game officials and coaches though I may not always agree with the decisions.
- I will be generous when I win and gracious when I lose.
- I will thank the opposition at the end of the game no matter what the outcome of the game is.
- I will not use or promote the use of alcohol, tobacco, drugs or fire arms at any AUSA sponsored event.

Failure to follow the above requirements may result in removal from Athens United.
