

PROFILE

Sarah graduated in 2017 from the Griffith University, with a Master's degree in Physiotherapy.

Since graduating, she has worked primarily with children presenting with a range of conditions, including neurological diagnoses, severe developmental delay, intellectual impairment, rare chromosomal disorders, and neurodegenerative diseases including vision, speech and hearing impaired.

Sarah owns and operates a private physiotherapy practice providing services to individuals on the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) Home Care Packages (My Aged Care) , and private clients.

CONTACT

07 4634 5409

PO Box 1241, Toowoomba QLD 4350

medicolegal@alliedhealthexperts.com.au

www.alliedhealthexperts.com.au

Sarah Higgs Physiotherapist

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS AND AFFILIATIONS

- Current Registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
- Masters of Physiotherapy (2016-2017)
- Bachelor of Exercise Science (2013-2016)
- Bachelor of Health Science ((2011-2012)
- Member of the Australian Physiotherapy Association (APA)

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Sarah has extensive experience in assessing and treating both children and adults with a large variety of presentations including; physical disabilities, rare chromosomal disabilities, neurological conditions and intellectual and psychosocial disabilities.

Sarah is able to provide a credible opinion in regard to any or all of the following:

- Physiotherapy treatment recommendations (Paediatric through to the elderly).
- Physiotherapy specific assistive technology recommendations for all age groups.

STRENGTHS

- Clear and concise report writing skills
- Clear understanding of a person's needs within their home environment
- Current clinical experience with all ages and disabilities
- Experience working within the systems in which Allied Health Professionals operate including, the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), Transport Accident Commission (TAC), Medicare and Support at Home (Aged care) sectors.
- An understanding of the roles of each profession within a multidisciplinary team.