

PROFILE

Nichola is a highly skilled and experienced clinician, with 27 years' experience as an Occupational Therapist.

She has worked in hospital, community health and private practice settings with both children and adults affected by a range of conditions.

For close to 10 years, Nichola worked extensively in the area of workplace rehabilitation, having the opportunity to visit hundreds of workplaces and develop expert skills in conducting functional capacity evaluation (FCE's), for pre-employment purposes, to facilitate return to work following injury, or in the context of illness.

In 2018 Nichola established Allied Health Experts and remains committed to mentoring and supporting other allied health professionals in medicolegal report writing and preparation for trial.
