

Office of the Orange County Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Central Florida Employment Connections (CFEC) has served the Central Florida region with a longstanding commitment to strengthening the workforce, supporting job seekers, and equipping employers with essential connections that fuel economic growth, since 1994; and

WHEREAS, CFEC has provided accessible employment resources, job fairs, training opportunities, and career development services that empower individuals to achieve economic stability and long-term career success; and

WHEREAS, CFEC's employer partnerships have played a vital role in helping local businesses recruit qualified talent, fostering economic growth, and supporting Orange County's diverse industry sectors; and

WHEREAS, CFEC's innovative workforce initiatives contribute to reducing unemployment, strengthening families, and enhancing the overall quality of life for residents throughout Orange County; and

WHEREAS, CFEC is widely recognized as the most trusted job fair in Central Florida, consistently attracting thousands of job seekers and employers annually, and upholding a reputation for excellence, accessibility, and integrity in workforce development; and

WHEREAS, Orange County Government acknowledges the longstanding service and impact of CFEC and commends the organization for its role as a valued partner in the region's workforce ecosystem.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jerry L. Demings, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Orange County Mayor, do hereby proclaim January 25, 2026, as in Orange County, Florida.

CENTRAL FLORIDA EMPLOYMENT CONNECTIONS DAY

DONE AND ORDERED, this 25th day of January 2026.

JERRY L. DEMINGS, ORANGE COUNTY MAYOR

