

BEN POOLE, PE

PROJECT ENGINEER

Key Qualifications

Ben assists with project management and site design for the projects. He has a quick vision of solving challenges on sites – particularly in relation to utility and stormwater planning. His goals are to assist owners/developers in producing a very successful project, while maintaining a balance to the constructability and cost. Ben’s knowledge of local municipal codes and rules and regulations of public and private utility agencies is key to project successes.

Education

BS, Biosystems Engineering (Bioenvironmental), University of Kentucky

Experience

6 years / with A&A since 2021

Registrations

Professional Engineer, Ohio

Specialties

Engineering

Preplanning

Site Design: Layout Design, Grading Design, Stormwater Planning, Utility Design

Zoning Regulations & Government/Municipal Interaction

Contact information:

Email: bpoole@abercrombie-associates.com

Phone: 513-385-5757