

Life Skill

Animal Care and Training:

Teaching kids to care for and train animals teaches them responsibility, empathy, and patience. It also helps them understand animal behavior and communication better.