Pastor's Pen

This week has flown by. I am not entirely sure what I did with most of the days. I worked on things, but I don't remember what all those things were. But then again, I don't remember what I had for dinner last night, either. I am working on packing and preparing to move to Jacksonville.

There are a couple of announcements I need to make. First, I am going to be out of town January 21-26. There will be no weekday Masses during that time. I go to a conference each year for the National Catholic Office for the Deaf. This year, we are in Portland, OR. The weather looks like it is going to rain the entire time we are there. It should be fun.

Welcome back to Ordinary Time. Often, we think of this time as the opposite of those special times in the year. We think Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter are special and this other season is just ordinary. But that misses the mark.

Years ago, when I first moved to Jacksonville, I was working to get acclimated to the role. There was a lot going on, despite it being during Covid Time. I remember sitting in the house thinking, I just need to make it to Friday. (Friday was my day off.) I remember thinking that if I can just make it to Friday, then I won't be so tired.

But each week, I felt like I got nothing done. And I didn't get anything done. I was so oriented to surviving until Friday that I didn't have the energy for anything else.

I think we can do the same thing with Advent and Lent. We might think, "I just have to get through this season and then the holiday will be restful." But I also think we can do something similar during Ordinary Time. We can be tempted to think that this season is just taking up space in between the other, more important seasons.

But this season has its own dignity. Ordinary Time is the bulk of the calendar. With 34 weeks, it makes up about 65% of the calendar year. And the content is significant. It is during these weeks of Ordinary Time that we learn the basics of being a follower of Christ. It is during this time that we learn about the miracles, the teaching moments, and the compassion of Christ. We see the disciples grow.

So, if you are in a place that you are thinking, "I just need to make it to Easter," or "I just need to get to some other magical date," I would challenge you to return to where you are today. I would challenge you to embrace the life you have today.

You know, we think "Ordinary" means not special, regular, or normal. But in language, we have different kinds of numbers. We classify certain sets of numbers. Our cardinal numbers answer the question, "How many are there?" Our Ordinal numbers answer the question, "Which position?"

Ordinal numbers can give us rankings: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc. They can describe dates as the 4th of July. They can give us sequential steps: First, Second, Third, etc. They are used in fractions and in names (one-fourth, Henry the Eighth). They can also give us physical locations as we talk about the 4th floor or the 3rd house.

We use ordinal numbers to place us in this time. Today is the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time. We are placed in this spot in time. We are here to live this day, following the will of God. We are called to love others, especially the stranger and the outcast.

One last thing, there are projects that I didn't get to do. Some of the parishes have work that needs to be done that is going to take a commitment from you. These can be large financial projects. I do not want you to be surprised when a new priest arrives and, it seems, the first thing he is doing is asking for money. I was going to announce these projects within the next month. He is going to have to carry that baton and establish the projects in the parishes with you. Please see this as a natural progression of the steps in this process, rather than a sudden shift in parish need.

-Fr. Adam

Vocations Corner

In just 2 days we'll celebrate the feast of St Sebastian. Like last week's saint, St. Agnes, Sebastian was a young martyr and lived 1800 years ago. He was a soldier in the Roman army, a member of an elite corps called the Praetorian Guard. He too was sentenced to death for being a Christian. He miraculously survived, and when healthy he went straight to the Emperor to try to convert him, who had him executed.
