Tonight's Honoree

Diane J. Exter

A long-time Boston philanthropist, volunteer and advocate, Diane is currently chair of United Way's Marian L. Heard (MLH) Scholarship Fund Committee. This life-changing program advances the next generation of leaders by providing the coaching and scholarships that can make higher education achievable. Under Diane's leadership, the program has been reshaped and expanded to offer four years of scholarship support and dramatically increased the number of college-bound participants. In 2015, we will have sent approximately 60 MLH scholars to school with 60 e-coaches to guide and support them.

We thank Diane for her extraordinary contribution in creating opportunities

Tonight's Honoree

ERNST & YOUNG

A model for the Boston corporate community, Ernst & Young's deep engagement includes participation in the Women's Initiative and Emerging Leaders, volunteerism through youth mentors and other programs, and notable participation in United Way workplace campaigns. Over the past four years, EY has grown by 65 new Leadership and 10 new Socioeconomic members. They now have the third highest number of Socioeconomic members of any United Way corporate partner.

We thank Ernst & Young for their outstanding involvement, support and commitment.
