

Below is the automated message template that you can simply copy and paste under any page or form that collects phone numbers on your website. This language must appear before submission. If any part of the website collects phone numbers (such as a contact form or appointment request/booking form), SMS consent language must be clearly displayed before submission. The language can be similar to the following:

Automated Message:

As part of our services, we may send out automated messages, such as, but not limited to, reminders regarding your appointment(s) and post-op instructions, through SMS or E-mail (when provided). You agree to receive these automated messages at any time. Message frequency varies and data rates may apply depending on your mobile and/or e-mail provider plan. You can reply STOP to unsubscribe from our SMS messages or use the opt-out link in our e-mail messages at any time.
