Section 2 Electronic Verification of Identity

Statement re Electronic Verification of Identity: As per the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act) CDF is required to verify your identity before providing any financial services. As part of the verification process, your name, address, and date of birth may be provided to a credit reporting body and reporting entities such as VIX Verify and Equifax, who will assess whether this matches the information held by them. They will use this information in addition to their own information to make the assessment. The issuer or official record holder of any document you provide may be contacted to verify them by using the Government's Document Verification Service. This document check may involve an approved third-party service. The information you are providing is your personal information and you must have authority to provide it to CDF.

Do you agree to CDF using and disclosing your personal information for the purposes of electronic verification as described in the Statement above regarding Electronic Verification of Identity?

Yes – please provide details of 2 of the 3 following valid Australian Government Identity Documents:

If you are unable to provide these documents, please provide 2 forms of acceptable identification documents (see reference information on page 3 of this form).
