Don't Be a Loogie

"I will spew you from my mouth!"

Jesus said, "For many are called, but few are chosen." (Mt. 22:14) For most Christians, that statement by Jesus begs the question, "Am I chosen?". I mean, who doesn't want to be chosen, right? Most Christians I know would say they are, but how does one really know?

Speaking about himself, a Christian brother once told me that he is CHOSEN and that there is a DIVINE ANOINTING on his life, yet in the very next breath, he admitted with downcast eyes... "I am lukewarm."

We need only open the Bible to Revelations 3:16 to see what Jesus will do with such a person. "So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth."

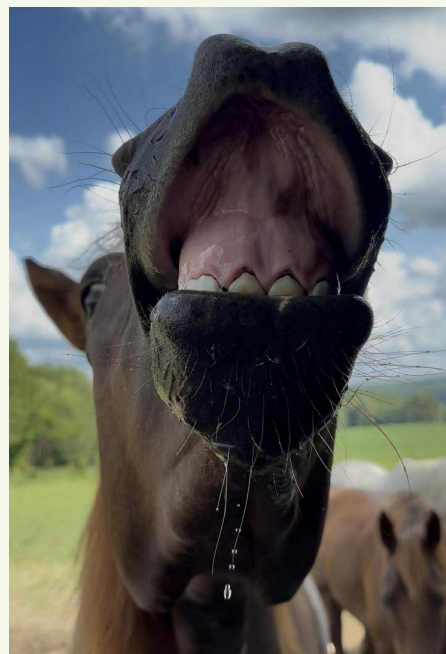

Reading in context, verses 15 & 16, Jesus would rather see His chosen one COLD as an unbeliever than lukewarm. "For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked."

I praise God that my brother admitted his lukewarm condition. Now we know how to pray for him. See James 5:16.

I am also grateful that Jesus would spew the lukewarm among us, out of His mouth, because when not in Christ (e.g., spit out from Him), we are subject to the heat of hellfire licking at our heels. That'll warm up my brothers & sisters, whom He has chosen. Pray for one another so that we will ALL be ON FIRE for Jesus!

Happy Trails & may God light your path! In Christian love, from your Equine-Assisted Recovery Coach,

Deh Peterson

But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth!
~Rev. 3:16

Student Spotlight: Isa Izbinski

Student volunteer, Isa Izbinski began volunteering in the stable at Too Far Out Farm in 2024. She worked hard and learned a lot while doing so. She also earned enough Wooden Nickel Rewards to help her mom cover the cost of her riding lesson program, which she successfully completed this month!

Congratulations, Isa!!!

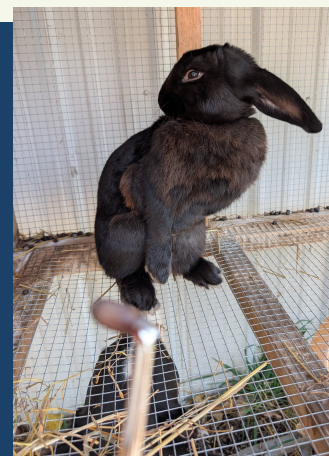

"I was just thinking about you and praying for blessings for you because you really have been a blessing to us. Isa really, truly hasn't been this motivated and active for so long and it brings me so much joy as her mother to feel like she's experiencing happiness again!" ~Chelsea Izbinski (Isa's Mom)

TFO Fur Babe Spotlight: BLACKKEY

Blackey and his sister bunny, Rowen, AKA, RoBo Bunny (not shown) were bred and donated to the Farm by volunteer, Cassandra Nickell. She even made sure they were socialized and well-suited for their roles as therapy rabbits.

Blackey experienced a bit of a medical emergency, recently. Debbie noticed that he had been scratching himself and had lost some hair behind his right ear, on his neck. We kept an eye on it for a couple days and after a week, we noticed that a lump had formed and it was getting bigger! Cassy's husband, Steve Googled it for us and discovered that it was a botfly larvae. YUCK! We decided to act quickly and got out a pair of forceps.

Check out this short video to discover the process that we used to relieve Blackey from this annoying parasite.

^^ Blackey underwent minor surgery, performed by Debbie, assisted by Volunteers, Cassy & Steve Nickell. Praise God that ugly thing is out of our bunny!

TITAN FINDS HIS FOREVER FAMILY

Titan is an 8 year-old, Kentucky Mountain Saddle Horse that arrived very sick to TFO Farm on September 29, 2024. TFO Farm is not necessarily a horse rescue, but we accepted the healing mission for Titan's sake. You may learn about his recovery journey on our Facebook page. <https://www.facebook.com/share/p/1BFp2b9uWi/>

Once cleared by our veterinarian, we hired trainer, Samantha Stanley to put a few rides on him to "tune him up." We found him to be a fun and well-behaved gaited riding horse! Even so, it was decided to re-home him, through no fault of his. Unfortunately, sometimes in life we need to make hard decisions.

Farm volunteers, Cassy & Steve Nickell are adopting Titan into their forever family! Congratulations Titan Nickell!
