— MONTHLY DIGEST : Vol. 05 —

Goodbye 2025...Welcome 2026!

As I let go of 2025 and embrace the new year, I ponder the societal chatter surrounding PERSONAL IDENTITY. To be clear, the "What am I?" question matters much less than, "Who am I?", when asking such things.

With the world at our fingertips, we find ourselves abundantly influenced by the present age of a plethora of platforms for self-expression & immediate gratification. Almost everyone has instant access to everything their hearts desire – virtually and literally!

We are experiencing the human condition on steroids! Life happens faster & heavier than ever. Who can keep up?! Rather than make introspective promises to self-improve through a New Year's resolution, I choose, instead to explore my identity, in Christ. I ask, "Who am I?". A sincere person asking such a thing, might eventually shift their trajectory towards an even more meaningful truth; one that transcends self, and anchors the soul to a more stable, tranquil and purposeful existence. Now, the question becomes, "Who is God?" By prioritizing that relationship, we can listen to God, our Creator FIRST & LAST and with child-like curiosity. For me, the question becomes... "Who am I in Christ?"

Some of you know that Mike and I experienced some extraordinary challenges with our health, wealth, and marriage in 2025. God did the work that only God can do and a new recovery journey for our family has begun! I'm grateful to say, we will resume our path to deeper intimacy with Jesus and each other, equipped with a holy fire, renewed minds, and a more focused conviction.

Last month, most Christians celebrated the birth of Jesus – God with us, Emmanuel. If there was ever a name to celebrate, it is Jesus! Do you know that our One God has many names? They are found in Scripture and I've listed them on page 2 of this newsletter. Other features in this issue include, a spotlight on senior herd member, Junior, some winter horse-care facts, upcoming farm events, wintertime volunteering info, a CR meeting schedule, and equine-assisted learning program info! Phew! We are a lively herd at TFO Farm!!! I encourage you to join the hallelujah party throughout 2026 – one day at a time, of course!

TFO Farm Knowledge Series: HOW HORSES STAY WARM

Our One God is so all-encompassing that He has many names. (See the list above.) Jehova-Jireh means "God, our provider." He provides ALL our needs for those who believe. The illustration shown at the right explains the science behind His provision for our beloved horses and the reason, you will rarely see our horses blanketed. Exceptions are if one of our herd is sick or aged causing their natural defenses against the cold to be compromised.

TFO Horse Spotlight: JUNIOR

Senior herd member of Too Far Out Farm, Junior is 24 years old this year. He has called TFO Farm home since 2007. He is the herd leader, which means so much more than deciding who gets to eat and when. Herd order is really important to horses for their felt safety and socialization.

Learn life skills and recovery principles by getting to know and interacting with Junior and his herd mates. See the flyer on page 4 of this e-Newsletter to apply for our 2026 equine-assisted coaching program.
