OTHER IMPORTANT DETAILS:

- Guaranteed Advancement to Finals means a team will compete in the 1st round on Day 1 and regardless of placement, will advance to Finals on Day 2.
- Teams can upgrade their bid. Example: Junior Jazz earns a gold bid, then at another event earns a platinum bid. The Junior Jazz will drop their gold bid and upgrade to platinum.
- A dancer who earns multiple bids for different teams will receive the highest bid they earned, and each additional bid will cover the Routine Performance Fees with the exception of a bronze bid.
- A minimum of the top half of each division will advance to finals. In divisions of 3 or less, all teams will move on to finals.
- If your team does not have a bid and they place higher than a team with a bid, it does not guarantee your advancement to finals.

OPENING NUMBER PERFORMANCE INFORMATION

Who can participate and when are selections due?

Each program can select up to 5 dancers per team to participate in the Opening Number. Please email the number of dancers representing your program in the Opening Number no later than Wednesday, April 1st to Molly@stage8dance.com.

What routine will the dancers perform?

Videos will be available on Stage 8 Dance Brands' YouTube channel for each age group to learn their section of the Opening Number routine. The age groups will be divided as tiny/mini, youth, and junior/senior. Dancers should learn their section of the routine before they arrive in Orlando.

What is the rehearsal schedule?

There will be two short rehearsals during the event. Rehearsal times for each age group will be announced after the final performance order is released. These rehearsals will be mandatory for dancers who are participating in the Opening Number. The attire for rehearsals is casual dance clothes that are comfortable with tennis shoes.

What is the genre/style of the Opening Number routine?

Showy, fun, and visual with no technical skills. As the ages increase, we might incorporate more intricate staging and movement without technical skills. We want this to be fun, entertaining, stress-free and memorable for the dancers!

What will the dancers wear for the Opening Number Performance?

Each dancer can select the costume of their choice to perform in.

NEW THIS YEAR!

Cash scholarships will be guaranteed to select dancers who participate and will be announced for each age group during Saturday's awards sessions! Dancers must be present at both rehearsals to be eligible for a cash scholarship.

If you have any questions, please email Molly@stage8dance.com. We look forward to seeing you in Orlando, FL this coming April and we cannot wait to make new memories with your dancers, coaches, parents, friends and YOU!
